GEONOVUS MEDIA WRAPS HOLLYWOOD SHOOT WITH STARS LANCE REDDICK, TROY EVANS AND JASON LONDON JUST IN TIME FOR VIFF

September 28, 2015, VANCOUVER, B.C. – GEONOVUS MEDIA CORP. ("GeoNovus" or the "Company") (CSE: GNM) announced today that filming for the short film "Spoken Word" has concluded in Los Angeles and is ready for post production in Vancouver. The team is back in Canada just in time for the Vancouver International Film festival which runs September 24 - October 9, 2015.

The GNM production "Spoken Word" stars actor Lance Reddick, as an African American judge in a moral conflict, who must overcome prejudice in his search for redemption. Lance is best known for portraying Cedric Daniels in "The Wire", Phillip Broyles in "Fringe", and Matthew Abbadon on the hit television series "Lost" created by Damon Lindelof and J. J. Abrams.

The film also stars, Troy Evans and Jason London. Troy Evans is best known for "Ace Ventura: Pet Detective" (1994), "ER" (1994) and "Epic" (2013) while Jason London is best known for "The Man in the Moon" with Reese Witherspoon (1991), "Dazed and Confused" (1993), and "Jason and the Argonauts" (2000) as well as being a director himself.

Gabriel Napora says "I was extremely proud to be part of this timely story and project and to work with some incredible actors. Watching actors like Lance, Troy and Jason and the rest of the cast, was truly amazing."

“Spoken Word” was directed by the writer, Ilan Srulovicz, “I Hate Ned” (2011), “Grit” (2015) and “Zero Day” (2015) and shot using RED cameras and is expected to be completed next month.

Timothy Marlowe states “The material attracted me right away and I just knew GeoNovus had to produce this film. I think we could be up for a lot of awards with this one.”

GeoNovus Media Corp is a new digital media company with a focus on motion picture production and distribution, corporate services, music creation and music publishing.
