While the use of cannabis appears to be substantially increasing at the state-legalized level in the United States, the status of Federal legalization of cannabis in is uncertain. Jeff Sessions the Current U.S. Attorney General is publicly opposed to the use of cannabis and on January 4, 2018, rescinded the Cole Memorandum, stating it was unnecessary. The Cole Memorandum was a document formerly issued by the Attorney General's office (2013/2014) that gave guidance to prosecutors to focus their enforcement resources for marijuana offences on 8 priorities, including preventing distribution to minors, preventing revenue from going to organized crime and preventing impaired driving. Instead, Mr. Sessions provided guidance that federal prosecutors should weigh all relevant considerations, including federal law enforcement priorities set by the Attorney General, the seriousness of the crime, the deterrent effect of criminal prosecution and the cumulative impact of particular crimes in the community. It is likely that the States which have legalized marijuana for medical and/or recreational uses will fight any prohibition on the production, sale and use of cannabis, as they are receiving significant amounts of tax revenue in connection with these activities. The rescission of the Cole Memorandum introduces additional uncertainty to the market for the Issuer's products. See also Listing Statement for the year ended December 31, 2017.
