It opens on March 7, 2019, Bringing One of the Country's Largest Patient and Health Care Resources to the Market*

TORONTO, ON / March 05, 2019 / Tree of Knowledge International Corp. (CSE: TOKI; OTC PINK: TRKWF) (the "Company" or "TOK") is pleased to announce that through its Toronto Poly Clinic (TPC) the Company has entered into agreements with each of Pancare Consulting Inc.—owner of Pain Care Clinics (PCC)— and Onsite Medical Group for the operation of a multi-specialty pain management facility located within the new Jack Nathan Health® Medical Centre. The new facility will provide numerous services ranging from medical pain management, including medical cannabis treatment and using TPC's proven proprietary MCORP opioid reduction system, interventional pain management, psychological therapy, weight management, mindfulness meditation and physical therapy such as physiotherapy, chiropractic and massage. The facility is set to launch on March 7, 2019, at the Walmart store located at 8300 Hwy 27, Vaughan, ON. Further details on the grand opening will follow.

Pancare Consulting Inc. currently owns and operates 8 PCC clinics in various cities of Canada and services more than 100,000 patients. Onsite Medical Group provides physical rehabilitation and assessment services in 17 locations in Ontario.

This Strategic Alliance is built on high-quality patient care designed to align the parties' interests and care goals and facilitate a rapid launch and expansion to future locations. Management believes the combined strength in a platform of TPC-PCC-Onsite Medical, as part of Jack Nathan Health® Medical Centres in these high traffic convenient store locations, will enable management to capitalize on one of the largest resources providing access to the health care system and patients.
