Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada – January 9, 2026 – GOAT Industries Ltd. (the “Company” or “GOAT”) (CSE: GOAT) (OTC: BGTTF) (FWB: 26B.F) is pleased to announce that Source Gaming Inc. (“BETSource”), a wholly owned portfolio company of GOAT, has entered into a relationship with Bare Knuckle Fighting Championship (“BKFC”) to support and enhance BKFC’s mobile app ecosystem (the “BKFC App”) through the integration of BETSource’s fan engagement and sportsbook attribution capabilities.

Pursuant to the definitive agreement between the BETSource and BKFC, dated January 9, 2026 (the “Agreement”), BETSource will be entitled to reimbursement of all operating costs incurred in connection with its services as well as a share of all revenues earned through the BKFCApp, which share will increase for new users of the app. The Agreement does not include exclusivity provisions or minimum performance commitments.

Over the past year, BKFC has significantly expanded its global footprint, driven by its raw, fan-friendly format and growing international audience. According to BKFC, reported performance metrics include a doubling in overall live event attendance, over the past year, increasing to 250M+ fans (globally) in social media reach, and growth into 60+ countries. BKFC’s distribution continues to scale through major media partnerships, including a newly announced content, promotional, and sales partnership with the YES Network, which described BKFC as the “World’s Fastest Growing Combat Sports Promotion.”

“We are excited to work with BETSource as we continue to evolve the BKFC App experience for our rapidly growing fan base. This relationship represents an important first step in implementing BETSource’s technology within our digital ecosystem, with a focus on delivering a premium, engaging experience for fans,” said David Feldman, Founder and President of BKFC.

As BKFC continues to scale its fan base and distribution, BETSource’s relationship with BKFC is intended to support BKFC’s digital strategy by enhancing the BKFC App experience through the deployment of BETSource’s engagement and sportsbook attribution capabilities. These capabilities are expected to deepen in-app interaction, support retention, and drive measurable outcomes that support BKFC’s broader monetization and engagement objectives.

“BETSource’s relationship with BKFC is a strong example of the commercial momentum we are building across GOAT’s portfolio,” said Kevin Cornish, Chief Executive Officer of GOAT. “BKFC has become one of the most compelling fast-growing combat sports promotions, and as its audience continues to scale, the quality of the digital experience matters. We believe BETSource is well positioned to help enhance the BKFC App experience by delivering engagement and sportsbook attribution capabilities that support measurable outcomes for BKFC’s business.”
