Name of Listed Issuer: CB2 Insights Inc. (the "Issuer").

Trading Symbol: CBII

Number of Outstanding Listed Securities: 79,997,556

Date: November 5, 2019

This Monthly Progress Report must be posted before the opening of trading on the fifth trading day of each month. This report is not intended to replace the Issuer's obligation to separately report material information forthwith upon the information becoming known to management or to post the forms required by Exchange Policies. If material information became known and was reported during the preceding month to which this report relates, this report should refer to the material information, the news release date and the posting date on the Exchange website.

This report is intended to keep investors and the market informed of the Issuer's ongoing business and management activities that occurred during the preceding month. Do not discuss goals or future plans unless they have crystallized to the point that they are "material information" as defined in the Policies. The discussion in this report must be factual, balanced and non-promotional.

- (b) The term "Issuer" includes the Issuer and any of its subsidiaries.
- (c) Terms used and not defined in this form are defined or interpreted in Policy 1 – Interpretation and General Provisions.

Report on Business

1. Provide a general overview and discussion of the development of the Issuer's business and operations over the previous month. Where the Issuer was inactive disclose this fact.

On October 29, 2019 the Issuer announced it had entered into a technology and multi-phase research agreement with VIVO Cannabis Inc. (TSX-V: VIVO, OTCQX: VVCIF) ("VIVO"), an Ontario-based cannabis company recognized for its premium products and services, to assist in the development of VIVO's global medical product development strategy.

Under the terms of the agreement, CB2 will be integrating CB2's Clinical Data Management Software (CDMS) and Electronic Data Capture (EDC) tools to establish better understanding of VIVO's current medical patient registry. Concurrently, the two companies will collaborate on a comprehensive multi-phase research strategy that will validate the safety and efficacy of current products. The plan is ultimately expected to help inform the design of clinical trials to support the deployment of future cannabis-based medicines.

"As the industry continues to evolve, regulatory bodies are putting greater emphasis on the validation of cannabis-based treatments through clinical trial data to measure their safety and efficacy," said Prad Sekar, CEO of CB2. "We will work closely with the team at VIVO to design a research strategy backed by the collection of high-quality real-world clinical data to support their current and future product innovations."

"CB2's global experience in clinical research and technology will enable VIVO to enhance our understanding of Canadian medical patients. This will facilitate our uncovering of new ways to meet the expectations of our current patients and will help inform our international growth plans," said Barry Fishman, CEO of VIVO. "At VIVO, our purpose is to help patients achieve a positive quality of life with cannabis. We look forward to utilizing our partnership with CB2 to further bring real world evidence to the medical cannabis industry."
