Report on Business

1. Provide a general overview and discussion of the development of the Issuer's business and operations over the previous month. Where the Issuer was inactive disclose this fact.

December 19, 2023

The Issuer is investigating the move of its corporate headquarters to a new domicile outside of Canada.

The Issuer is currently based out of Vancouver, British Columbia in Canada. This possible move is to better align Fineqia's head office with its operations in the United Kingdom, Europe, and increasingly in the Middle East. The move is a pivotal step in enhancing the Issuer's operational efficiency and market reach within these key regions. By positioning itself in closer proximity to its European operations, The Issuer aims to leverage local market dynamics and regulatory landscapes more effectively, thereby bolstering its presence and influence locally and in the global financial sector.

Irrespective of the redomicile decision, the Issuer's stock will continue to be listed in Canada. This continuity reflects the Issuer's dedication to its Canadian investors and the importance of the Canadian market in its overall business strategy. The Issuer's shares currently trade on the Canadian Securities Exchange (CSE).

To support its potential relocation, the Issuer is selecting a new audit firm with the necessary approvals and digital asset expertise across Canadian and international jurisdictions. A new audit firm will help better align its auditing processes with its evolving operations and prospective new corporate domicile. The Issuer announces the resignation of its current auditor, who will arrange for the necessary handover to a new firm.

The Issuer is actively evaluating several jurisdictions used by many multi-national companies, including the Isle of Man, Jersey, Liechtenstein, Switzerland and the United Arab Emirates as potential new domiciles for its corporate headquarters.
