

CannAmerica Brands Corp. appoints Chief Operating Officer

Diana Anglin Brings Decades of Regulatory Compliance Expertise to CannAmerica Management Team

VANCOUVER, November 12, 2019 - CannAmerica Brands Corp. ("CannAmerica" or the "Company") (CSE: CANA) (OTCQB: CNNXF) is pleased to announce that it has appointed cannabis regulatory compliance leader Diana Anglin as its new Chief Operating Officer. As the second in command of the Company, Ms. Anglin will now oversee ongoing operations of current partnerships, design action plans to align with the culture and vision of the Company, create strategic partnerships across the industry for brand awareness, and direct staff based on priorities and goals for growth.

Prior to joining the cannabis industry in 2014, Ms. Anglin spent 20 years working in regulatory compliance in higher education for the Colorado School of Mines, the University of Colorado Denver, the University of Arizona, the University of Phoenix and Western Michigan University. Since 2014, Ms. Anglin has been instrumental for cannabis policy development in Colorado, having served as Chair of the Compliance Council for the Colorado Cannabis Chamber of Commerce from 2014 - 2016, and COO of AmeriCanna founded in 2015 and rebranded as CannAmerica in 2017.

"It is my honor to serve as the CannAmerica Brands Corp. Chief Operating Officer," said Ms. Anglin. "I appreciate the Board for recognizing my dedication to the Company and its employees, stockholders, and clients."

Before entering the cannabis space, Ms. Anglin worked in the higher education sector. Years of interpreting rules such as Title IV, NCAA (National Collegiate Athletic Association) and college accreditation standards prepared Ms. Anglin for her operational role in the heavily regulated cannabis industry.

“Ms. Anglin has truly been the driving force of all the logistical complexities behind the transition from being a licensed operator in Colorado to a licensing company for operators across the nation, as well as the transition from a private to a public company.” said Dan Anglin, CEO of CannAmerica. “Ms. Anglin’s attention to detail, commitment to the consumer and her dedication to the vision and mission of the Company has been the key ingredient to bring our Company to success,” continued Mr. Anglin. “I’m grateful to have such a talented team of professionals by my side as we expand into new marketplaces and by adding Diana to our executive management team, the Company is poised for leading the industry into the future of legalized cannabis across the nation and the globe.”
