Liht Cannabis Corp. develops public cannabis information sessions for its dispensary, Green Leaf Wellness in California

Liht Cannabis Corp. (or the “Company”) (CSE: LIHT) (OTCQX: LIHTF) is pleased to announce that it is developing scheduled, public cannabis information sessions for its dispensary, Green Leaf Wellness in Desert Hot Springs, California. These public sessions will inform attendees on available products and potential uses for each.

Since the legalization of recreational cannabis in California on July 4th, 2018, the market has exploded with new and unique cannabis products, providing customers with a rapidly expanding selection, including but not limited to, vapes, edible products and multiple cannabidiol (THC) (CBD)-infused goods. Although the variety provides greater product selection for customers, it can be difficult to navigate for some.

As stigma fades, “baby-boomers” are exploring alternative wellness and therapeutic options to treat age related conditions, such as sleeplessness, anxiety, joint pain, and other ailments, with the purpose of improving overall function and quality of life.

Starting on January 23, 2019, our dispensary in Desert Hot Springs will offer free, semi-monthly information sessions. Each session will include 30 minutes of information on therapeutic cannabis treatments for a variety of health conditions, 30 minutes of a host-vendor demonstration, ending with a 30 minute comprehensive tour of the sales floor.

January 23rd Joint Relief - Product Specialist from Dampen and Papa & Barkley will attend to demonstrate their products to alleviate arthritic conditions.

February 6th Back to Basics - Product Specialists from Heavy Hitters on the benefits of vaping for relief of back pain and Cannariginals on treating centralized pain with emu oil and tinctures.
