15. Provide details of any loans to or by Related Persons.

None.

16. Provide details of any changes in directors, officers or committee members.

None.

17. Discuss any trends which are likely to impact the Issuer including trends in the Issuer's market(s) or political/regulatory trends.

On October 17, 2018, The Cannabis Act came into force in Canada and recreational cannabis is now available to legal adults (aged 18 or 19 depending on the province or territory) for purchase, growth, or use in limited quantities. On October 17, 2019, additional legislation came into force in Canada allowing and regulating the use and sale of Cannabis topical and edible products.

On March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization declared COVID-19 a global pandemic. It has adversely affected global workforces, economies, and financial markets, triggering an economic downturn and is expected to impact many retail businesses. It is not possible for the Company to predict the duration or magnitude of the adverse results of the outbreak nor its effects on the Company's business or operations at this time.

In March 2020, the Issuer moved to a work from home environment for any functions not required onsite. Employees who do travel to work are encouraged not to take public transit, to wash their hands regularly and to practice social distancing. Setting up for remote working did not significantly disrupt the Issuer's business, although it caused some delays in the accounting department and in financial reporting. The processes and tools to work from home have been in place for most of the Issuer employees and key consultants for some time. The Issuer has noted high productivity and cost efficiencies associated with this flexibility.

The Issuer also reduced expenditures from top to bottom, ensuring that dollars are spent exclusively on strategic projects and essential on-going efforts that move us toward profitability. Further, the Issuer has asked all members of the Yield Growth team to ensure they routinely "think like an owner" and seek maximum value for every dollar spent.

In order to keep its talented team while weathering protracted economic uncertainty, key employees and consultants (including the CEO) have temporarily moved to a reduced, 4-day work week. From March 23rd to August 31st, 2020 the Issuer will operate an 80% work week at 80% of pay while delivering 100% of critical work through rigorous prioritization of efforts.

The Issuer implemented travel restrictions for work related travel, and imposed self-isolation for employees with symptoms of sickness or returning from international travel. The Issuer also cancelled live multi person events such as in store pop ups and influencer events until further notice.

The Issuer is well-positioned to take advantage of the growing importance placed on physical and mental health and wellbeing, and the rising demand for high-quality, natural products that support this.

The Issuer intends to increase revenues through products that are in high and sustainable consumer demand, drawing on existing, stability-tested formulas to bring these to market under new and existing brands. It has added several hand sanitizer products to its Urban Juve brand, initiated research into topicals that may fight infectious diseases and continues with production plans for its immune boosting mushroom coffee line.

Certificate Of Compliance
