

CROP’S EMERALD HEIGHTS SAN BERNARDINO CANNIBIS BUSINESS RETAIL APPLICATION ON FINAL PHASE.

February 12th, 2019 - VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA - CROP INFRASTRUCTURE CORP. (CSE: CROP) (OTC: CRXPF) (Frankfurt: 2FR) announced today it has received confirmation that its San Bernardino retail cannabis business application has now advanced to stage four of the application review process.

As previously announced on July 5th 2018, CROP agreed to finance the purchase of real estate upon the granting of a California dispensary license. The proposed dispensaries will operate under the brand “Emerald Heights”.

CROP and its partners will attend a special mayor and city council meeting to make a three minute presentation followed by a question and answer session. Subject to a successful outcome, Emerald Heights will be licensed to open its San Bernardino retail location on the city’s busiest intersection next to the fairgrounds which has ample parking for customers.

CROP CEO, Michael Yorke, stated: “CROP has high expectations for Emerald Heights at this location. The team has done its market and location research very well and are now in the final phase of the application process in San Bernardino. We believe the community will enjoy the opportunity to share an elevated adult retail experience that the Emerald Heights brand will provide.”
