

CROP AND HEMPIRE MAKE A ‘BIG STEP FORWARD’ IN CALIFORNIA WITH ANTLER RETAIL

February 21st, 2019 - VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA - CROP INFRASTRUCTURE CORP. (CSE: CROP) (OTC: CRXPF) (Frankfurt: 2FR) announced today it has signed an agreement with Antler Retail Inc., whereby Hempire and CROP will provide Antler with finished packaged goods under the Antler brand.

Details are as follows:

Unit	Wholesale Unit Price	No of Units	MSRP	Total Value of Purchase
1/2 Gram Vape Carts	$15.00	10,000	$50	$150,000
1/4 Gram Vape Carts	$12.00	4,000	$40	$48,000.00
Infused Cone	$10.00	2000	$18	$20,000
Cones	$5.00	2000	$10	$10,000.00
			Total:	US$228,000

Antler recently acquired an approved permit for a cannabis retail location with state wide delivery rights in California. Its US retail location will be in Desert Hot Springs and it has plans to take advantage of the now expanded state-wide nature of its delivery rights. This licence gives Antler the freedom to address a much larger market place without the immense potential overhead of many brick and mortar operations.

CROP and Hempire will provide Antler its home-made brand outside of what Antler anticipates offering from separate self-branded cultivators from all over California. As Antler moves into additional US states, the supply agreement will be amended to bring the Antler Home brand to each State Antler enters.

Payment for the initial order has been converted to shares in Antler Retail at CAD$0.20 per unit by issuance of 1.5 million units with each unit consisting of one common share and one common share purchase warrant at CAD$0.75 exercisable for a period of 12 months.

CROP CEO, Michael Yorke, stated: “We believe it is a prudent move for our company to convert our finished products into shares of Antler retail. Subject to regulatory approvals, Antler is anticipating an Initial Public Offering (IPO) later in 2019.”

“There is a strong appetite for IPOs which has grown rapidly since the passing of the Farm Bill last December. We see this as an opportunity to not only assist Antler in entering additional states, but also as a big step forward in further establishing CROP’s retail presence in a key market while making what we believe will be a very sound investment.”
