Global Gaming Technologies Announces Appointment of Senior Advisor

Vancouver, BC, APRIL 30, 2019 — GLOBAL GAMING TECHNOLOGIES CORP. (CSE: GGAM.U) (FSE: BWSP) (OTC: BLKCF) ("GGAM", or the "Company") is pleased to announce that Mike Pelletier will be joining the Company in the capacity of Senior Advisor to establish and develop key business relationships.

Mike Pelletier has fifteen years of marketing management experience across Fortune 500 companies and start-ups. He was previously the Marketing Director for Call of Duty, the world's leading shooter franchise with total unit sales of over 250 million and posting gross sales of over $11 billion since its launch in 2003¹. Mike spent six and a half years in the Brand Management and Consumer Marketing divisions of Activision Blizzard, one of the largest game publishers in the world with a market capitalization of over $35 Billion. It was in this role that he was responsible for overseeing the launch Call of Duty: Advanced Warfare, which was the game that took the franchise's gross revenue past $10 billion.

After his success with Call of Duty, Mike has spent the last two years as a partner and head of marketing at the mobile gaming hardware and software start-up Wonder. Mike has a business and marketing degree from McGill University, consistently ranked among the top higher academic institutions in the world².

Nolan Bushnell, CEO of the Company, said: "X2 Games has been working with Mike in preparation of the launch of St. Noire and our portfolio of Alexa powered games – I am delighted to have him join us officially. His connections, experience and business acumen in the gaming industry make him a valuable acquisition for Global Gaming Technologies."

X2 Games' mission of creating innovative and popular products that create truly immersive experiences for players fits perfectly with Mike's history in global companies creating blockbuster games and smaller start-ups with inventive strategies. X2 Games has several games in development, having released pre-orders for St. Noire, a murder-mystery-style game that uses the Amazon Alexa to encourage players to interact with protagonists and side characters in the game. With Mike's assistance, X2 Games will be well positioned to bring St. Noire and other games in the development to market and establish itself as a dominant player.
