

ORCHID VENTURES IS NOW DTC ELIGIBLE IN THE UNITED STATES

Orchid Ventures is pleased to announce that it has obtained DTC eligibility by the Depository Trust Company ("DTC") for electronic settlement and transfer of its common shares in the United States.

IRVINE, CA – September 18, 2019 – Premium cannabis brand Orchid Ventures, Inc. (CSE: ORCD)(OTC:ORVRF) (“Orchid Ventures” or the “Company”) announces that it has been approved by the DTC for electronic settlement and transfer of its common shares in the United States.

Corey Mangold, Founder and CEO of Orchid comments "We are very excited to have obtained DTC eligibility since this will simplify the process for our investors and brokers trading and exchanging our stock in the United States. We also expect that being DTC eligible will improve our trading volume and the attractiveness of ORCD's shares on the market, particularly as we expand our business throughout the United States and continue to grow revenue and profits."

Glendale Securities sponsored the Company to become DTC eligible. DTC is a subsidiary of The Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation, which manages electronic clearing and settlement of publicly-traded companies. Securities that are eligible to be electronically cleared and settled through the DTC are considered "DTC eligible." Since ORCD is now DTC eligible, the process for buying and selling ORCD's shares will be much easier and faster.
