Report on Business

1. Provide a general overview and discussion of the development of the Issuer's business and operations over the previous month. Where the Issuer was inactive disclose this fact.

The Company has continued throughout the month of October 2020 to develop its intellectual property assets, making progress within its nutraceutical and pharmaceutical applications, including potential drug and vaccine advancements.

In early October, the Company announced the successful dosing (administration) of its Quicksome™ rapid dissolve oral strip and microparticle technology to subjects in its third-party pre-clinical trial for the drug ivermectin. Ivermectin is a well-documented anti-parasitic drug that is used globally in both veterinary and human medicine and its uses are being broadened to include such applications as protecting from COVID-19 and anti-malarial, and has also been shown to be effective in vitro against a broad range of viruses including HIV, Dengue, Influenza and Zika virus.*

Previously announced on August 6, 2020, Mountain Valley MD achieved the successful complexation of ivermectin into a cyclodextrin and its inclusion in the liposomal technology that is the basis of MVMD's proprietary Quicksome™ technology. Ivermectin was then fabricated in two dosage forms: an enteric coated microparticle and a mucoadhesive strip form for sublingual dosing. This enabled the formal scheduling and commencement of the pre-clinical ivermectin trial.

The successful ivermectin dosing was completed without the use of needles on canines for both of the foregoing Quicksome™ technology applications with no adverse events.

Billions of worldwide ivermectin doses annually are utilized in developed countries to protect most domestic and husbandry animals from parasites including poultry, pigs, cattle and horses. The Company believes that the potential cost reductions and ease of administration of a microencapsulated form of ivermectin in animal feed supply offers licensing partners with significant benefits in the competitive generic drug space.

With the successful dosing of these two product forms, the Company had anticipated receiving the complete pharmacokinetic data from the ivermectin pre-clinical trials within approximately two weeks, however continues to await this data. It is anticipated that the pharmacokinetic data will successfully document superior movement of the ivermectin drug into, through, and out of the body and the time course of its absorption, bioavailability, distribution and metabolism.

The Company believes that successful ivermectin dosing in the pre-clinical trial environment demonstrates the ability for the Quicksome™ platform to be adapted to commercially viable delivery products for both veterinary and human medical applications.

N/A

16. Discuss any trends which are likely to impact the Issuer including trends in the Issuer's market(s) or political/regulatory trends.

At the current time, the most significant trends and uncertainties which MVMD's management expects could impact its business and financial condition continue to focus on the global spread of the COVID-19 virus. The current climate of uncertainty around the spread, speed and fatality of this virus globally is a potential threat to general business development activities, the raw material supply chain for the company's products, employee engagement on key business activities, and the overall capitalization of the business.

Additionally, although deemed a more minor part of the overall company's health and wellness strategy and current activities, the cannabis vertical of the organization could be impacted beyond the COVID-19 implications referenced above through (i) the changing legal and regulatory regime which regulates the production, sale and export of cannabis and cannabis related products in each territory in which it intends to operate in some capacity, including but not limited to Canada and Colombia; (ii) the ability of companies who may receive funds from the sale of cannabis and cannabis related products to adequately track and legally transfer such funds; and (iii) the ability of companies to raise adequate capital to carry out their business objectives.

However, management feels extremely fortunate that the health of its team has not to date been impacted and the Company has been able to continue to work effectively on many key business priorities.
