

Byrna Technologies Inc. Postpones First Quarter Reporting due to COVID-19 Related Delays

Wakefield, Massachusetts, April 20, 2020 – Byrna Technologies Inc. (OTCQB: BYRN) (CSE: BYRN) ("Byrna" or the "Company") is postponing the reporting of its first quarter 2020 results and its associated filings due to logistics caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. Recent global events pertaining to COVID-19 has impacted the Company's and its consultant's ability to rely on timely information for its financial reporting obligations. The Company's personnel at the corporate headquarters in Massachusetts have been subject to a stay at home order in effect through at least May 4, working remotely with their auditors and other third parties. Subject to completion of the audit of its fiscal year ending November 2019, also delayed for COVID-19 related reasons, the Company will report results for the first quarter 2020 as soon as possible. The Company is afforded the postponement by a 45-day extension announced by the Ontario Securities Commission under the "Ontario Instrument 51-502", dated March 23, 2020. The OTCQB also affords the Company a cure period of 45 calendar days to file its quarterly report following the original due date. .

Ensuring a safe and healthy working environment for our workforce is a primary focus for Byrna and we continue to implement and enforce additional precautionary health and safety measures. The Company will continue to seek to manage operational risk and preserve capital during this very difficult time.

The Company ratifies that management and the Company's insiders remain subject to the Company's Insider Trading Policy and confirms that there have been no material business developments since October 2019 when the Company filed its third quarter interim financial results other than as announced.
