TransCanna Plants Two New Crops at Daly

Canadian Securities Exchange: TCAN
Borse Frankfurt: TH8
OTC: TCNAF

Vancouver, BC, October 12, 2021 – TransCanna Holdings Inc. (CSE:TCAN: XETR: TH8) (“the Company” or “TransCanna”) is pleased to announce that it is preparing two new crops today at its Daly Facility. The dedicated team of cultivators at TransCanna’s subsidiary, Lyfted Farms, are replanting the first cultivation room and preparing plants for its 3rd cultivation room.

The first room of 1400 plants produced an abundant September harvest. The second cultivation room will harvest in early December, and the third will be ready in about eight weeks.

“We are off to a fantastic start with all our activities coming online at Daly,” said Bob Blink, CEO for TransCanna. “The cultivation parameters and conditions we have put in place are proving to yield better results than expected, and we are finding a nice rhythm in rotating cuttings through our vegetative room before placing them in their cultivation rooms.” As previously announced, the addition of the vegetative room is increasing yield and efficiency by 25%.

Planting in the third cultivation room means that three of the five new cultivation rooms recently constructed at Daly are now fully operational, with the first one already growing its second crop. Once operating at full capacity, each of the five rooms will produce up to five harvests per year.

In addition to cultivation, crop management, cold storage, and processing services have also come online at the multipurpose Daly Facility.

“Our diligent and consistent efforts to create the largest vertically integrated cannabis facility in California are being realized, day by day,” said Mr. Blink.
