Trading Symbol: OILS

Number of Outstanding Listed Securities: 124,468,803

Date: June 4, 2021

This Monthly Progress Report must be posted before the opening of trading on the fifth trading day of each month. This report is not intended to replace the Issuer’s obligation to separately report material information forthwith upon the information becoming known to management or to post the forms required by Exchange Policies. If material information became known and was reported during the preceding month to which this report relates, this report should refer to the material information, the news release date and the posting date on the Exchange website.

This report is intended to keep investors and the market informed of the Issuer’s ongoing business and management activities that occurred during the preceding month. Do not discuss goals or future plans unless they have crystallized to the point that they are "material information" as defined in the Policies. The discussion in this report must be factual, balanced and non-promotional.

General Instructions

- (a) Prepare this Monthly Progress Report using the format set out below. The sequence of questions must not be altered nor should questions be omitted or left unanswered. The answers to the items must be in narrative form. State when the answer to any item is negative or not applicable to the Issuer. The title to each item must precede the answer.
- (b) The term “Issuer” includes the Issuer and any of its subsidiaries.
- (c) Terms used and not defined in this form are defined or interpreted in Policy 1 – Interpretation and General Provisions.

Report on Business

1. Provide a general overview and discussion of the development of the Issuer’s business and operations over the previous month. Where the Issuer was inactive disclose this fact.

Nextleaf Solutions is an innovative cannabis processor that owns one of the largest portfolios of U.S. patents for the extraction, distillation, and delivery of cannabinoids. Through its wholly-owned subsidiary Nextleaf Labs Ltd., a licensed processor, the Company is a low-cost producer of cannabis distillate and private label THC and CBD oils. Nextleaf's proprietary closed-loop automated extraction plant in Metro Vancouver has a design capacity to process 600 kilos of dried cannabis into oil per day. The Company owns 14 U.S. patents and has been issued over 70 patents globally. Nextleaf is developing delivery technology through its Health Canada research licence with sensory evaluation of cannabis via human testing. The Company's patent pending Rapid Emulsion Technology by OILS™ powers differentiated ingestible cannabis products. Nextleaf is commercializing its issued and pending patents through licensing of intellectual property, extraction services, and supplying cannabis oils to qualified Canadian and international business-to-business partners under their own brand.

On May 6, 2021, the Company announced that, through Nextleaf Labs, it had validated and entered an initial supply agreement with a B.C.-based hemp supplier (the "Supplier") for CBD rich biomass. The Company also announced that it continued to support the advancement of one of its partners who is considered an early pioneer in cannabis production in Atlantic Canada (the "Partner"), for high-purity CBD-based products, leveraging a proprietary formulation. It also announced that it had completed successful scale-up trials for a variety of market validated liquid-based product formats manufactured with the Company's proprietary CBD Rapid Emulsion Technology by OILS™ ("Rapid CBD").

On May 13, 2021, the Company announced that its initial entry into branded consumer products, with the acquisition of all rights associated with the award-winning, prohibition-era brand, "Glacial Gold", a previous category leader in speciality concentrates and extracts, with market validated formulations. Nextleaf and Glacial Gold signed a copyright release which will include rights for Nextleaf to use the "Glacial Gold" brand identity on any products and formulations at the Company's discretion, in addition to an existing online presence and audience base across multiple channels. The Company plans to refresh the brand as part of its launch strategy, while still retaining the brand's fun, engaging, authentic identity. As part of the acquisition of Glacial Gold rights and associated material, the Company issued 440,000 common shares at a deemed price of $0.25 per share.

On May 13, 2021, Nextleaf also announced that it had extended its warrant exercise incentive program designed to encourage exercise of up to 10,400,000 of its outstanding share purchase warrants (the "Warrants") through July 15, 2021 and had amended the expiry date of the Warrants from May 15, 2021 to July 15, 2021. As previously announced, the Company amended the exercise price of the Warrants to $0.265 per common share of the Company (each, a "Share"). Under the incentive program, the Company is offering an inducement to each holder of Warrants (each, a "Warrantholder") who exercises their Warrants prior to July 15, 2021. All Warrantholders who exercise their Warrants prior to July 15, 2021 will receive one additional share purchase warrant (each, an “Incentive Warrant”) for each Warrant exercised. Each Incentive Warrant will entitle the holder to purchase one additional Share at $0.35 per Share until July 15, 2022 (the “Term”), subject to acceleration. If, for any ten consecutive trading days during the Term, the closing price of the Shares on the Canadian Securities Exchange (the “CSE”) exceeds $0.44 then, upon the Company sending to the holders of the Incentive Warrants notice of acceleration of the expiry date by way of a news release, the Incentive Warrants will only be exercisable for a period of 30 days following the date of such news release. Any Shares issued upon exercise of the Incentive Warrants will be subject to a statutory four-month and one day hold period from the date of issuance of the Incentive Warrants. If, for any 10 consecutive trading days during the unexpired term of the Warrants the closing price of the Shares on the CSE exceeds $0.33, then, upon the Company sending to the Warrantholders notice of acceleration of the expiry date by way of a news release, the Warrants will only be exercisable for a period of 30 days following the date of such news release.

On May 13, 2021, Nextleaf also announced that it had issued an aggregate of 427,500 common shares at a deemed price of $0.25 per share to consultants of the Company, as compensation for services provided.

On May 20, 2021, the Company announced that the United States Patent and Trademark Office had granted the Company a patent to a method for refining raw cannabis plant material, adding to Nextleaf’s already robust and expanding U.S. patent portfolio. Nextleaf’s latest U.S. patent covers a method for separating cannabinoid-rich trichomes from lower potency cannabis biomass, including most approved industrial hemp cultivars, which Nextleaf uses to increase the concentration of CBD in hemp biomass. The Company’s patented technology significantly increases extraction efficiency and improves the economics of processing hemp into high-purity CBD extracts. The Company owns 14 U.S. patents and has been issued over 70 patents globally for the extraction, purification, formulation, and delivery of cannabinoids.
