

EV Battery Tech Announces the Launch of the IoniX RV Freedom

February 24, 2021 Vancouver, BC - Extreme Vehicle Battery Technologies Corp. (the “Company” or “EV Battery Tech”) (CSE: ACDC) is pleased to announce the official launch of the IoniX Pro Recreational Vehicle Freedom (the “RV Freedom”).

The Company recently announced its intention to launch its RV Series on January 26, 2021 and has today begun taking orders for the first product in the series, the RV Freedom, through the IoniX Pro website www.ionixpro.com.

The Recreational Vehicle (RV) market was estimated at US $51 billion in 2019, and projections are showing the US market to hit US $77 billion by 2026.¹ The Company believes it is entering the market at an ideal time to meet consumer demand with an advanced product.

“Between the COVID 19 pandemic limiting international travel, and safe domestic travel, we are excited to bring one of the most advanced RV batteries to the market” said EV Battery Tech CEO, Bryson Goodwin.

“We believe that RV enthusiasts should have the choice of renewable energy and the option to travel with the ease, comfort, reliability and the green choice of eco-friendly battery technology” continued Mr. Goodwin.

The RV Series is not just for RV’s, but was also designed for the following use cases:

- Recreational vehicle accessories
- Backup power for camp sites
- Backup power for remote lodging
- Emergency power supply for cars, boats, and trucks

The Company is also pleased to launch its new, redesigned renderings of its IoniX Pro Home SmartWall and TITAN Pro series, in stainless steel coverings, available to view on the IoniX Pro website.

“Keep an eye out, we anticipate additional product announcements, technology advancements and exciting joint ventures to look forward to in 2021” concluded Goodwin.

On behalf of the Company,

Bryson Goodwin, Chief Executive Officer
