

FEEL FOODS TO LAUNCH ‘BREAKFAST’ OF PLANT-BASED ‘EGGS AND BACON’ PRODUCTS

VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA – DECEMBER 9th, 2021 - FEEL FOODS LTD. (“Feel Foods”) (CSE: “FEEL”) (OTC: “FLLL”) (FSE: “1ZF”) announced today it is developing plant-based eggs and bacon products and will be launching them shortly.

Traditional breakfast segments of the plant-based foods sector are experiencing ‘meteoric’ growth and Feel Foods is at the forefront having already acquired 100% of Black Sheep Vegan Cheeze.

Black Sheep Vegan Cheeze products are now available for purchase on multiple online marketplaces and over 70 retailers and food services locations in BC with marketing in Alberta underway and a recently received CFIA export licence to begin marketing products in the USA, which can be seen at Instagram.com/blacksheepvegancheeze and at any participating online marketplaces.

Feel Foods CEO, David Greenway, stated: “Breakfast segments of the plant-based foods industry are currently experiencing meteoric growth and we are aiming right at it with the imminent launch of our new eggs and bacon plant-based products. We feel these traditional breakfast items are part of a fast-growing segment of the plant-based movement and are highly complimentary to our Black Sheep Vegan Cheezes and whip product.”

Feel Foods and Black Sheep recently launched a vegan whip cream after successful testing at farmers markets and trade shows. The company has already begun shipping the product to its distribution network, currently consisting of 70 retailers, foods service business and online marketplaces.

The plant-based food market is expected to grow at a CAGR of 11.9% from 2020 to 2027 to reach $74.2 billion by 2027.*

The growth of this market is mainly attributed to the factors such as increasing incidence of intolerance for animal protein, growing urbanization with new consumer aspirations, increasing vegan population, and significant venture investments in this sector.*
