THE YUMY CANDY COMPANY WINS BEST BOOTH AT CANADA'S LARGEST HEALTH FOOD SHOW CHFA

VANCOUVER, BC, April 26, 2022, The Yumy Candy Company Inc., (CSE: TYUM) ("Yumy Candy" or the "Company") is pleased to announce it has won the award for "Best Booth" at the Canadian Health Food Association beating out over 750+ competing brands at the CHFA tradeshow. CHFA is known as the largest and most important food tradeshow to attend in the Health Food category. Formed in 1964, the CHFA represents over 1,000 businesses across Canada and continues to have year over year growth as Canadians adopt a healthy living and eating as part of their daily lifestyles.

"We are incredibly pleased to be recognized as the best booth at the show! Throughout the show we were getting inquiries from significant chain buyers and sales brokers. The outreach we got throughout the show was incredible and it truly shows how much our Company has grown and how much more we can grow over the coming months. Over the next period we intend to have meetings with many of the visitors from the show which will lead to significant placement of our products in even more of the top retailers," states Erica Williams, CEO and Founder of Yumy Candy.

The natural health product industry contributes $4 billion, and the organic product industry contributes an additional $5 billion to the Canadian economy. CHFA is a trade show where many of the leaders/most established companies in both of these sectors attend to showcase their products.

"With all the buzz and excitement around the Yumy Candy booth from the 300+ retailers in attendance, it is with no surprise they won the "Best Booth" award out of the 750+ brands, this is thanks to all their hard work at their first CHFA NOW show here in Vancouver. With over 40 years of experience, we at Star Marketing are excited about the positive momentum surrounding this company as they continue to grow in the grocery space," states Kevin Lum of Star Marketing, Business Development Manager.
