

Electronic Arts (EA) Co-Founder Jeff Burton Joins P2Earn as New Advisory Board Chairman

Toronto, Canada. --(Cision - May 2, 2023) - P2Earn Inc (CSE:PXE) (FSE:WH4) is very pleased to announce that Jeff Burton, Co-founder of Electronic Arts Computer Games (www.ea.com), has joined the Company's advisory board as Chairman.

Jeff is a pioneer in computer gaming, having co-founded Electronic Arts (market cap as of April 14th, 2023: 35.1 billion USD) which is now home to such computer game titles as the PGA Tour series, Madden series, and Medal of Honor amongst hundreds of other leading titles. He brings decades of experience and contacts to the Company and shares our passion that gaming can create social mobility through the sharing of profits generated through gameplay.

Jeff Burton stated, "I am delighted to join the advisory board of P2Earn, as Play-2-Earn gaming prepares to go mainstream. I have long believed that the concept of players earning a share of the profits through gameplay was the future of all gaming. The unique Guild model that P2Earn has developed, is the perfect way to implement this approach. I am passionate about gaming going beyond entertainment, creating social mobility and entire new economies where both the games and the players can thrive. I believe that P2Earn is the future of online gaming."

Alex Lineton, CEO of P2Earn, added, "We are excited that Jeff has joined the Company as we prepare for our full public launch of the P2Earn Gaming Guild. Jeff's experience and network are not only legendary in the industry, but also proving invaluable to us as we begin to enter the next phase of growth of our Gaming Guild. We look forward to expanding the advisory board under Jeff's leadership as we bring on additional experts in the gaming space."
