Recent Company Highlights

Nextleaf's prohibition-era brand, Glacial Gold™, was one of British Columbia's best-selling brands of cannabis vapes and oils in 2022.

Low-cost producer: 10 issued U.S. patents protect what the Company believes to be the most efficient methods for producing high-purity THC and CBD ingredients in a regulated market.

Ingredient manufacturer and bulk supplier: Nextleaf supplies THC and CBD distillate to federally licensed partners for distribution under their own brands. Nextleaf is powering the Canadian Launch of Cookies "C" branded vapes, and other leading brands. The Company continues to win business from producers outsourcing their oil production.

First international shipment of cannabis vape products: THC vapes custom manufactured by Nextleaf under private label are exported and distributed by pharmacies outside Canada where medical cannabis is legal.

The Company released its audited annual financial statements for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2022. Total revenue increased 52% from the year prior. Cost of Sales decreased approximately 12%, while the Company reduced SG&A, R&D, and total operating expenses year over year.
