The Moray Property consists of 8,483 hectares located 49 km south of Timmins, Ontario, 32 km northwest of Alamos Gold's Young-Davidson gold mine. During December 2023, New Break continued to compile the results of its 2023 stripping, trenching and channel sampling program on areas of Moray ground, newly acquired during 2023. The Company plans to report the results of its 2023 Moray exploration program in early January 2024.

New Break expects to compile a comprehensive analysis for a planned drilling program that incorporates the results of exploration work during 2021 and 2022 on the original 1,856-hectare Moray property, along with the results from the 2023 field season on newly acquired ground.

In addition, on December 7, 2023, New Break was informed by the Ontario Ministry of Mines that the Company's application to participate in the second intake of the 2023-2024 Ontario Junior Exploration Program had been accepted and that New Break was eligible for reimbursement of up to $200,000, being 50% of the first $400,000 spent in connection with the exploration plan application. As at December 31, 2023, New Break had already incurred exploration expenditures in excess of $350,000 towards this program, which consisted of prospecting, stripping, trenching, channel sampling and geological mapping on the Moray ground newly acquired during 2023.

Sundog Property consists of 9,415 hectares located within Inuit Owned Lands in Kivalliq Region, Nunavut. New Break completed a site visit to Sundog on September 10, 2023, during which famed Canadian prospector Ken Reading, along with Shaun Parent, P. Geo., took eight rock chip and grab samples. On December 6, 2023, New Break announced the results of this sampling program, with half of the eight samples taken grading over 7.5 grams per tonne gold, including the identification of new gold bearing structures adjacent to previously identified mineralized zones. The price of gold (London P.M. Fix in U.S. dollars) remained above US$2,000.00 per ounce and continued to climb during the month of December 2023, increasing from US$2,035.45 per ounce at November 30, 2023 to US$2,062.40 per ounce at December 29, 2023 (A.M. Fix). In general, inflation has begun to subside and central banks, including the U.S. Federal Reserve have paused their interest rate increases for the time being. Market conditions for the purchase of shares of junior mining companies has continued to be extremely weak, despite the higher gold price, making access to capital difficult and putting pressure on share prices of publicly traded juniors. In Canada, due to a challenging 2023 for many investors, the December 2023 flow-through season was subdued.
