

Digital Commodities Announces $3 Million Unit Financing to Grow Bitcoin Asset Base

Vancouver, British Columbia--(Newsfile Corp. - June 25, 2025) - Digital Commodities Capital Corp. (CSE: DIGI) (OTCQB: DGCMF) (FSE: W040) ("Digital Commodities" or the "Company") is pleased to announce a non-brokered private placement of up to 20 million units (each, a "Unit") at a price of $0.15 per Unit for aggregate gross proceeds of $3 million (the "Financing"). Each Unit consists of one common share and one common share purchase warrant (a "Warrant"), exercisable at a price of $0.30 per share for a period of two years. The net proceeds from the Financing will be used to increase the Company's Bitcoin treasury holdings, furthering its strategic focus on high-quality digital asset exposure.

"This $3 million financing is a significant step in our strategy to build a meaningful, treasury-grade Bitcoin position," said Brayden Sutton, CEO of Digital Commodities. "As long-time participants in digital asset markets - and with deep conviction in Bitcoin's role as a store of value and hedge against inflation - we believe this capital will drive sustainable long-term value for our shareholders. We remain focused on building high-quality BTC exposure through a disciplined, transparent, and non-dilutive approach."

The Warrants will be subject to acceleration if the Company's shares trade at or above $0.45 for 10 consecutive trading days, in which case the Company may, by news release, accelerate the expiry to 30 days from the date of such notice. The Company may pay finder's fees in connection with the Financing, in accordance with applicable CSE policies.

Securities issued under the Financing will be subject to a statutory hold period of four months and one day in accordance with applicable securities laws and a concurrent four month hold period imposed under CSE policies, in each case, commencing on the date of issuance.

This press release does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy the securities in the United States. The securities have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "U.S. Securities Act") or any state securities laws and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to U.S. Persons as defined under applicable United States securities laws unless registered under the U.S. Securities Act and applicable state securities laws or an exemption from such registration is available.

Forward-Looking Statements

This release includes certain statements and information that may constitute forward-looking information within the meaning of applicable Canadian securities laws. Forward-looking statements relate to future events or future performance and reflect the expectations or beliefs of management of the Company regarding future events. Generally, forward-looking statements and information can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "intends" or "anticipates", or variations of such words and phrases or statements that certain actions, events or results "may", "could", "should", "would" or "occur". This information and these statements, referred to herein as "forward-looking statements", are not historical facts, are made as of the date of this news release and include without limitation, statements regarding the completion of the Financing, the terms of the Financing, that the Financing is expected to increase shareholder value, statements regarding Bitcoin's role as a store of value and inflation hedge and that the Company is taking a disciplined and transparent approach to building high -quality strategic BTC exposure, that finder's fees may be paid on the Financing and the anticipated use of the net proceeds of the Financing. Accordingly, readers should not place undue reliance on the forward-looking statements and information contained in this news release. Readers are cautioned that the foregoing list of factors is not exhaustive.

In making the forward-looking statements in this news release, the Company has applied certain material assumptions, including without limitation, that the Company will complete the Financing on the terms and conditions expected, that the Company will receive the required corporate approvals for the Financing, that the Company will receive the expected benefits from the Financing, that the Financing will increase shareholder value, that Bitcoin will be a store of value and inflation hedge, that the Company will take a disciplined and transparent approach to building high-quality BTC exposure, that the Company will use the net proceeds of the Financing as currently anticipated, and that finder's fees may be paid in connection with the Financing.

These forward-looking statements involve numerous risks and uncertainties and actual results might differ materially from results suggested in any forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include, among other things, that the Company will not receive the required corporate approvals for the completion of the Financing, that the Financing will fail to increase shareholder value, that the price of Bitcoin will drop significantly, that the Company will fail to complete the Financing on the terms disclosed, or at all, that Bitcoin will not be a successful store of value and/or inflation hedge, that the Company's business plans will change, that the Company will fail to take a disciplined and transparent approach to building high-quality BTC exposure, that the Company will not use the net proceeds of the Financing as currently anticipated, that the Financing will not close within the time frame expected, adverse changes to the cryptocurrency industry, adverse changes to cryptocurrency regulations, general economic, market or business conditions, uninsured risks, other regulatory changes and other risks detailed herein and from time to time in the filings made by the Company with securities regulators. Although management of the Company has attempted to identify important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in forward-looking statements or forward-looking information, there may be other factors that cause results not to be as anticipated, estimated or intended. There can be no assurance that such statements will prove to be accurate, as actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such statements. Accordingly, readers should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements and forward-looking information. Readers are cautioned that reliance on such information may not be appropriate for other purposes. The Company does not undertake to update any forward-looking statement, forward-looking information or financial out-look that are incorporated by reference herein, except in accordance with applicable securities laws.

Neither the CSE nor its Regulation Services Provider (as that term is defined in the policies of the CSE) accepts responsibility for the adequacy or accuracy of this release.
