

American Aires Inc. Announces Change of Auditor

Toronto, Ontario--(Newsfile Corp. - April 7, 2026) - American Aires Inc. (CSE: WIFI) (OTCQB: AAIRF) (the "Company") announces that the Company's auditors, AGT Partners LLP ("AGT"), have withdrawn and resigned as auditor of the Company, effective April 6, 2026, and will not complete the audit or issue an auditor's report on the Company's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2025.

AGT has advised that its withdrawal and resignation relate to a previously identified and publicly disclosed governance and internal control weakness relating to United States sales tax compliance, which, in AGT's professional judgment, remains in the process of remediation and informed AGT's decision not to continue as auditor or complete the audit.

There were no reservations or modified opinions in AGT's auditor's reports on the Company's financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2024 or December 31, 2023.

The Company's Audit Committee and Board of Directors have approved the Notice of Change of Auditor and have commenced a process to appoint a successor auditor.

In accordance with applicable Canadian securities laws, the Company will file a Notice of Change of Auditor, together with the required letters from AGT and the Company, under the Company's issuer profile on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.ca.
