Starting on Friday, April 8, 2022, the new immersive art exhibit designed by Tarzian – who has been behind-the-scenes for the last few years creating some of the most amazing interactive experiences in Chicago, including the local favorite, Emporium, known for its pop-ups – will open up to those 21 years and older at Mission Dispensary South Chicago, located at 8554 S Commercial Ave, Chicago. This globetrotting art exhibit transports attendees through the "Caves of Mexico," the "Hindu Kush Mountains," to Hawaii, Thailand and then finally, to the Midwest to gain a deeper understanding of the cannabis plant, its origins and dissemination, genetic makeup and more. As guests travel the Trail to 4/20, they will learn about cannabis' amazing history, compounds in the plant like "cannabinoids," "terpenes" and "trichomes," and various cannabis strains and subcategories, including "indica," "sativa" and "landrace." Other highlights of the mesmeric trail include walking through a tunnel, over a bridge and uncovering objects such as rocks and mushrooms containing interesting factoids, which are strategically placed throughout the exhibit.

"Cannabis' history is deep, fascinating and has been part of cultures around the world for thousands of years," said 4Front CEO Leo Gontmakher. "We are thrilled to bring this hands-on, creative learning experience to the public. Working with A.J. – one of the country's best experiential designers and creative minds – has been a real honor. Ahead of 4/20, we are confident that this immersive collaboration will 'wow' everyone from the cannacurious to the connoisseurs, as well as history buffs, travel enthusiasts and plant lovers, and that participants
