

CEO of Agrios Global Holdings Ltd. Presenting at The Advantage Strategy and Financial Conference June 14, 2019, in Vienna, Austria

VANCOUVER, June 10, 2019 /CNW/ - Agrios Global Holdings Ltd. (CSE: AGRO) (OTCQB: AGGHF) (FSE: ØSA - WKN-A2N62K) ("Agrios" or the "Company") is pleased to announce that Chris Kennedy, President & CEO of Agrios will be presenting at the Advantage Strategy and Financial Conference (ASFC) on Friday June 14, 2019, in Vienna, Austria.

The ASFC, presented by Donau Invest Beteiligungs GmbH, and sponsored by GBC AG, is an invitation only event attended by institutional investors, portfolio managers, asset managers, family offices and high net worth individuals. The conference showcases international companies with innovations in technology in many sectors including agri-tech, biotech and medical/pharmaceutical applications and products.

Agrios is one of several presenters recognized for their development of ground-breaking technologies and products in the areas of agri-tech applications and data analytics that have been invited to present at the conference. Agrios, has developed and employs proprietary data analytics driven technology for use in aeroponic cultivation, which permits the replication of exact growing conditions to produce consistent premium quality crops and yields at a cost-effective price point.

Agrios' aeroponic cultivation technology is currently utilized in the cannabis sector where purity and consistency of product have become paramount for establishing global standards for measuring and prescribing doses of therapeutic cannabis derivatives. As the future potential of cannabis in the medical sector is becoming a central topic, both in the US and Europe, it is likely that standardization regulations will be enacted to ensure that patients receive pure, high quality cannabis-based medications throughout their treatment regimes.

Other innovators presenting at the ASFC include Hookipa Pharma Inc. (NASDAQ: HOOK) a biopharmaceutical company developing a new class of immuno-therapeutics, Marinomed Biotech AG (WB: MARI) which focuses on the development of pharma products based on patent-protected technology platforms, and Accanis, a developer of innovative drug therapeutics using mRNA for the treatment of common, localized diseases.

"The importance of improving the purity, consistency and effective delivery of healing therapies is always at the forefront of technology research and development. We believe that Agrios' indoor growing science technologies and methods will support the replication of consistent growing outcomes. We look forward to presenting Agrios' technological innovations along-side such notable companies as Hookipa, Marinomed, and Accanis at this invitation only event," stated Chris Kennedy President & CEO of Agrios.
