

BCC ADDED TO THE CSE COMPOSITE INDEX

TORONTO, ONTARIO, March 20, 2017 – (CSE: BCC, OTC:CBICF)

The Canadian Bioceutical Corporation (the “Company” or “BCC”) (CSE: BCC, OTC:CBICF) is pleased to announce that effective March 17, 2017 at close of trading, the Company has been added to the CSE Composite Index. The index is comprised of shares of listed companies that meet market capitalisation, trading and seasoning criteria established by the exchange.

“Inclusion in the index is a validation of the value we have created through our highly profitable platform acquisition in Arizona,” stated Scott Boyes, CEO of BCC. “We continue to build value in the company, both through organic growth initiatives and further acquisitions, and are working to increase our visibility on the capital markets.”

About The Canadian Bioceutical Corporation

BCC, an Ontario corporation, through its wholly owned subsidiaries in the U.S., provides management, staffing, procurement, advisory, financial, real estate rental, logistics and administrative services to two medicinal cannabis enterprises in Arizona.

Under the Health for Life (“H4L”) brand, two licensed dispensaries operate in the rapidly growing Greater Phoenix Area (GPA). The Company is developing a third dispensary following the acquisition of an additional license in Arizona. Additionally, the Company supports the Melting Point Extracts (“MPX”) brand. The award winning MPX products have facilitated rapid growth of the brand’s wholesale business, now supplying a growing number of Arizona dispensaries.

The Company also leases a property in Owen Sound, Ontario, for which an application to Health Canada has been made for a cannabis production and sales license. In addition, the Company will continue its efforts related to its legacy nutraceuticals business.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Information
