The COVID-19 pandemic has resulted in the extended shutdown of certain businesses in various parts of the world, which may in turn result in disruptions or delays to our supply chain. These may include disruptions from the temporary closure of third-party supplier and manufacturer facilities, interruptions in product supply or restrictions on the export or shipment of our products. Any disruption of our suppliers and their contract manufacturers may impact our sales and operating results. The outbreak of COVID-19 may also impact customer demand, the availability of key components that are sourced from other jurisdictions, logistics flows and the availability of other resources to support our operations.

To date the outbreak has not had a material adverse impact on our operations. However, the future impact of the outbreak is highly uncertain and cannot be predicted, and there is no assurance that the outbreak will not have a material adverse impact on the future results of the Issuer. The extent of the impact, if any, will depend on future developments, including actions taken to contain COVID-19.
