Report on Business

1. Provide a general overview and discussion of the development of the Issuer's business and operations over the previous month. Where the Issuer was inactive disclose this fact.

The Company continues to focus on opening markets for its two main products / technologies in 1) road dust suppression and 2) agriculture

On February 6 the Company announced that Olij Breeding Ecuador, an industry-leading rose propagator, has adopted the Company's microbial biofertilizer, Soil Activator™, as part of their core rose production methods. Olij Ecuador, a division of Netherlands-based Olij Breeding International BV, is an innovative breeder and propagator of new rose varieties for commercial producers. Olij Ecuador currently grows over 30 different rose varieties, propagating for the flower industry in Ecuador and the surrounding region. Flower production is a significant economic driver in Ecuador: globally, it is the third-largest exporter of cut flowers.

On February 27, the Company announced that it has begun shipping its patent-pending biofertilizer and biostimulant product, Soil Activator™, to multiple licensed producers of medical marijuana in Canada for trials. These licensed marijuana producers will be conducting their own independent trials to validate Earth Alive's own trials. Based on the results of previous third-party testing by a licensed medical marijuana grower, plants grown with Soil Activator™ produced 28% more than plants grown with standard fertilizer alone.

On February 28, the Company announced that its distribution partner, Brenntag Colombia, is now adding Earth Alive's Soil Activator™ biofertilizer to enhance the efficacy of its liquid fertilizer formulations. This new combination was a collaborative effort by the two companies in order to enhance the effectiveness of Brenntag Colombia's Agrofeed product line of conventional fertilizers. The floral industry is a large market for Brenntag in Colombia, which is the second largest exporter of cut flowers in the world.

2. Provide a general overview and discussion of the activities of management.

Management's activities and focus in February:

Working closely with new distributor Brenntag for both Dust Control and Agriculture and is also the sales activities of its new East African distributor, IM-EX Trading.

In addition, The Company continues to seek registration for its Soil Activator™ product in other South American Countries.
