Report on Business

1. Provide a general overview and discussion of the development of the Issuer's business and operations over the previous month. Where the Issuer was inactive disclose this fact.

On February 4, 2019, the Company's common shares commenced trading on the Canadian Securities Exchange under the trading symbol "HODL". No action will be required by existing shareholders with respect to the name change. Certificates representing common shares of Khan will not be affected by the name change and will not need to be exchanged.

This name change reflects the Company's new business direction which is to be a Canadian-based holding vehicle set up to invest in companies, technologies and protocols, which enhance or protect privacy, as well as freedom and trust. Its strategy is to make targeted investments in and acquisitions of businesses and assets with strong privacy, often within the blockchain ecosystem, including select cryptocurrencies. The Company believes privacy will be an increasingly strong narrative across the technology sector going forward.

The Company has not yet invested in any digital privacy coins but expects to begin in Q2 2019. There were no changes in the other Company's strategic investments in the month.

On February 13, 2019 the Company announced that Jon Matonis had joined the Company as Chief Economist. Jon is a monetary economist with a particular focus on non-political digital currencies and privacy technologies. His career has included senior influential posts at VISA International, VeriSign, Sumitomo Bank and Hushmail. He was a founding director of the Bitcoin Foundation.
