

CROP UPDATE ON 40 ACRE NEVADA THC FARM

JANUARY 3rd, 2019 - VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA - CROP INFRASTRUCTURE CORP. (CSE: CROP) (OTC: CRXPF) (Frankfurt: 2FR) announced today its 49% owned subsidiary Elite Ventures has graded and cleared the 40 acres with construction to begin on the security wall next week.

The project will be completed in time for the 2019 outdoor planting which is forecast to yield in excess of 80,000 pounds. The following strains have been chosen for the project: Blueberry, 9 lb Hammer, Gelato, Tiffany CBD, Insane OG, Blue dream, Durban Poison and Purple Kush.

CROP is also working with lease financiers to build a 60,000 square foot greenhouse facility on the property for the purpose of producing higher quality flower.

The farm will be protected by an eight-foot-high block wall topped with razor wire and an interior chain link combination razor wire fence with a guard tower and CCTV (closed-circuit television). The cost is expected to be $600,000, with final pricing on the greenhouse still to be determined.

The company is now accepting 2019 off take orders and supply agreement requests from processors, distributors and retail outlets.

CROP CEO, Michael Yorke, stated: “The project is advancing on schedule and on budget with great thanks to the construction teams who continued working right up until December 24th and are now back on site to ensure success of the farm in 2019.”
