

CRYPTOBLOC ANNOUNCES NEW PRIVATE PLACEMENT AND PROVIDES CORPORATE UPDATE

Vancouver, B.C. April 26th, 2019, Cryptobloc Technologies Corp., (“Cryptobloc” or the “Company”) (CSE:CRYP), (OTC:CRYBF), (Frankfurt Stock Exchange:GR9) is pleased to announce that it is undertaking a non-brokered private placement (the “Private Placement”) for total gross proceeds of up to $750,000.

The Private Placement will consist of up to 15,000,000 units at a price of $0.05 per unit (each a “Unit”). Each Unit will be comprised of one common share and one common share purchase warrant (each a “Warrant”). Each Warrant will entitle the holder to acquire one common share for a period of three years at a price of $0.05. Proceeds of the Private Placement will be used for general working capital purposes.

The securities issuable in connection with the Private Placement are subject to a statutory four month and one day hold period. Closing of the Private Placement is subject to receipt of applicable regulatory approvals, including the approval of the CSE.

Corporate Update

The Company also announces that Kent McParland has stepped down as Chief Financial Officer and Director of Cryptobloc. The Company wishes to thank Mr. McParland for his service over the past year and wishes him all the best in his endeavours.

Mr. McParland will be replaced by Tjalling DeJong as a Director of Cryptobloc. Mr. DeJong is an accomplished finance executive with more than 20 years of experience raising capital and advising on capital market transactions, with a focus on the Cannabis sector for the past two years. Mr. DeJong holds a Bachelor of Commerce with a major in Finance and Economics from the University of Lethbridge. Robert Abenante will assume the role of interim Chief Financial Officer until a replacement is sourced for the role.

“Cryptobloc is grateful for Mr. McParland’s contributions to the Company during the past year,” stated Robert Abenante. “We also would like to welcome Mr. DeJong to the team. He brings over 20 years of investment advising, capital raising and market experience from his tenure at Canaccord Genuity Group and Leede Jones Gable,” added Mr. Abenante. “These skill sets will play an instrumental role as the Company shifts its focus to new opportunities in the near future.”
