Notes to the Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements
For the six months ended January 31, 2023 and 2022
(Unaudited)
(Expressed in Canadian dollars)

1. Nature of Operations and Going Concern

Go Metals Corp. (“Go Metals” or the “Company”) was incorporated on April 27, 2012 in Canada with limited liability under the legislation of the Province of British Columbia. The Company’s common shares trade on the Canadian Securities Exchange (“CSE”) under the symbol “GOCO” and its registered office is located at Suite 810 – 789 West Pender Street, Vancouver, BC, V6C 1H2, Canada.

The Company is an exploration stage company and is in the process of exploring its mineral properties in Canada and has not yet determined whether its properties contain ore reserves that are economically recoverable. The recoverability of amounts spent for mineral properties is dependent upon the discovery of economically recoverable reserves, the ability of the Company to obtain the necessary financing to complete the exploration and development of its property, and upon future profitable production or proceeds from disposition of the properties. The operations of the Company will require various licences and permits from various governmental authorities which are or may be granted subject to various conditions and may be subject to renewal from time to time. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to comply with such conditions and obtain or retain all necessary licences and permits that may be required to carry out exploration, development, and mining operations at its projects. Failure to comply with these conditions may render the licences liable to forfeiture.

These condensed interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the going concern basis, which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business. Should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern, it may be unable to realize the carrying value of its assets and to meet its liabilities as they become due. As at January 31, 2023, the Company has not generated any revenues from operations and has an accumulated deficit of $7,859,295 (July 31, 2022 - $6,233,378). The Company expects to incur further losses in the development of its business, all of which may cast significant doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern. The continued operations of the Company are dependent on its ability to generate future cash flows or obtain additional financing. Management is of the opinion that sufficient working capital will be obtained from external financing to meet the Company’s liabilities and commitments as they become due, although there is a risk that additional financing will not be available on a timely basis or on terms acceptable to the Company. These condensed interim consolidated financial statements do not reflect any adjustments to the carrying values of assets and liabilities, the reported expenses, and the balance sheet classifications used that may be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern. Such adjustments could be material.

(b) Fair Values

The Company has classified fair value measurements of its financial instruments using a fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of inputs used in making the measurements as follows:

- Level 1: Valuation based on quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2: Valuations based on directly or indirectly observable inputs in active markets for similar assets or liabilities, other than Level 1 prices, such as quoted interest or currency exchange rates; and
- Level 3: Valuations based on significant inputs that are not derived from observable market data, such as discounted cash flow methodologies based on internal cash flow forecasts.

As at January 31, 2023, the fair values of cash, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, due to/from related parties, loan payable and lease liabilities approximate their carrying values due to the relatively short-term maturity of these instruments.

(c) Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due. The Company currently settles its financial obligations out of cash. The ability to do this relies on the Company raising equity financing in a timely manner and by maintaining sufficient cash in excess of anticipated needs. Management and the Board of Directors are actively involved in the review, planning and approval of significant expenditures and commitments. The Company's liabilities are predominantly due within 90 days of January 31, 2023 and lease liabilities of $8,433 (July 31, 2022 - $852) due within 12 months, and $20,580 (July 31, 2022 - $Nil) beyond 12 months.

(d) Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss to the Company if a counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations.

The Company's cash is largely held in large Canadian financial institutions. The Company does not have any asset-backed commercial paper. The Company is not exposed to any significant credit risk.

With respect to its due from related parties, the Company assesses the credit rating of all debtors and maintains provisions for potential credit losses, and any such losses to date have been within management's expectations. The Company's credit risk with respect to amounts due from related parties and maximum exposure thereto as at January 31, 2023 is $63,890 (July 31, 2022 - $72,624).

(e) Price Risk

The Company is exposed to price risk with respect to commodity prices. The Company's ability to raise capital to fund exploration and development activities is subject to risks associated with fluctuations in the market price of commodities.

11. Financial Instruments (Continued)

(f) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. Financial assets and liabilities with variable interest rates expose the Company to cash flow interest rate risk. The Company does not hold any financial liabilities with variable interest rates other than loans payable which bears 5% interest (Note 6). The Company does maintain bank accounts which earn interest at variable rates but it does not believe it is currently subject to any significant interest rate risk.

(g) Foreign currency exchange rate risk

The Company currently has no significant operations denominated in foreign currencies. Management believes there is no significant foreign currency exchange rate risk.

12. Capital Management

The Company defines its capital as cash and equity comprised of issued share capital and deficit. The Company manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it, based on the funds available to the Company, in order to support the acquisition and exploration and development of mineral properties. The Board of Directors does not establish quantitative return on capital criteria for management, but rather relies on the expertise of the Company's management to sustain future development of the business. The properties in which the Company currently has an interest are in the exploration stage. As such, the Company has historically relied on the equity markets to fund its activities. In addition, the Company is dependent upon external financings to fund activities. In order to carry out planned exploration and pay for administrative costs, the Company will need to raise additional funds. The Company will continue to assess new properties and seek to acquire an interest in additional properties if it feels there is sufficient geologic or economic potential and if it has adequate financial resources to do so. Management reviews its capital management approach on an ongoing basis and believes that this approach, given the relative size of the Company, is reasonable. There have been no changes in the Company's approach to capital management during the six months period ended January 31, 2023.

The Company is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements as at January 31, 2023 except when the Company issues flow-through shares for which the amount should be used for exploration work.

On March 10, 2022, the Company completed a flow-through private placement totaling $16,000. As at July 31, 2022, the Company incurred all $16,000 in eligible exploration and evaluation expenditures and consequently the Company has the obligation to incur a further remaining balance of $Nil in exploration and evaluation expenditures.

On May 9, 2022, the Company completed flow-through private placements totaling $600,000. As at January 31, 2023, the Company incurred all $600,000 (July 31, 2022 - $28,816) in eligible exploration and evaluation expenditures and consequently the Company has the obligation to incur a remaining balance of $Nil in exploration and evaluation expenditures.

As at January 31, 2023, the Company incurred all $19,943 in eligible exploration and evaluation expenditures and consequently the Company has the obligation to incur a remaining balance of $2,168,663 in exploration and evaluation expenditures.

13. Segmented Information

The Company operates in one reportable operating segment, being the acquisition and exploration of mineral properties in Canada. As the operations comprise a single reporting segment, amounts disclosed also represent segment amounts. All long-term assets of the Company are located in Canada.

14. Subsequent events

On February 7, 2023, the Company granted incentive stock options to directors and consultants to purchase an aggregate of 900,000 common shares at an exercise price of $0.10 per common share for up to two years.

On March 8, 2023, 650,000 incentive stock options were cancelled. On January 25, 2023 the Company announced HSP Nickel-Copper-Cobalt Project ("HSP") on the Côte-Nord of Quebec, has successfully intersected nickel-copper mineralization on all targets as part of the first-ever drilling program.

Phase 1 program highlights

- All five nickel-copper-cobalt sulphide targets tested have confirmed mineralization
- 9.3m of 0.43% Ni, 0.17% Cu and 0.05% Co at PGE Central (HSP-22-09)
- 12m of 0.28% Ni, 0.46% Cu and 0.05% Co at Chamber South (HSP-22-02)
- 2m of 1.31% Cu and 0.15% Ni at Red Mountain (HSP-22-06)

- Including 1.35m from 19m: 0.69% Ni, 0.22% Cu, 0.085% Co, with 0.25 g/t PGE + Au
- And 1.4m from 23.2m: 0.93% Ni, 0.15% Cu, 0.11% Co, with 0.35 g/t PGE + Au
- Near surface parallel mineralized structures intercepted

The first drill results from the PGE Central zone showed mineralized structures continuous at depth correlating to the EM anomalies. The higher-grade intervals in hole HSP-22-09 highlight good potential for the upcoming phase 2 drill program at HSP. The geophysical modelling will continue to guide the exploration and help to refine the approach as new information learn about each unique HSP target."

Discussion of operations

The Company is an exploration stage company and is in the process of exploring its mineral properties in Canada and has not yet determined whether its properties contain ore reserves that are economically recoverable. The recoverability of amounts spent for mineral properties is dependent upon the discovery of economically recoverable reserves, the ability of the Company to obtain the necessary financing to complete the exploration and development of its property, and upon future profitable production or proceeds from disposition of the properties. The operations of the Company will require various licences and permits from various governmental authorities which are or may be granted subject to various conditions and may be subject to renewal from time to time. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to comply with such conditions and obtain or retain all necessary licences and permits that may be required to carry out exploration, development, and mining operations at its projects. Failure to comply with these conditions may render the licences liable to forfeiture

On December 5, 2022 the company announced that the first assays highlight the potential at HSP with an encouraging interval in hole HSP-22-08. The remaining eight drill holes are being processed by the lab and will be reported when received and interpreted.

There are no general trends regarding the Company's quarterly results and the Company's business is not seasonal, as it can develop and progress on a year-round basis, funding permitting. Quarterly results may vary significantly depending mainly on whether the Company has engaged in new activities or abandoned any projects and these factors which may account for material variations in the Company's quarterly losses are not predictable. See also the results of operations discussion above.

During the second quarter of 2023, the Company incurred a loss of $389,112 compared to $97,372 for the same quarter during the prior year. The loss of $389,112 includes a non-cash stock-based compensation expense of $357,345. The exploration credit of $42,918 includes a refund of expenses previously paid and recorded for the Phase 1 drilling program. The total assets of $3,296,417, compared to the $1,371,673 of the previous quarter of 2023 was mainly due to the increase in cash due to the proceeds from share issuances during the second quarter of 2023. The Company is working with contractors and local First Nations to plan the Phase 2 drill program at HSP property. The Company is assessing drill site locations for four priority targets with associated access requirements and logistics.

During the first quarter ended October 31, 2022 the Company incurred a loss of $1,236,805 compared to a loss of $110,414 during the first quarter in the prior year. The main reason for the increased loss during the current quarter, is because the Company spent $1,430,643 on exploration expenses compared to $57,875 during the first quarter in the prior year. Total assets of $1,371,673 in the first quarter ended October 31 2022 decreased by $824,274 from the year ended July 31 2022.

During the fourth quarter of 2022, the net loss decreased from $441,694 to $181,653, mainly due to the fact that exploration expenses decreased from $364,639 in the fourth quarter of 2021 to $27,123 in the fourth quarter of 2022. The total assets of $2,195,947, compared to the $652,022 of the fourth quarter of 2021 was mainly due to the large increase in cash of $1,212,255 due to the proceeds from share issuances during the year ending July 31, 2022.

During the third quarter ended April 30, 2022, the Company incurred a loss of $252,724 compared to a loss of $36,196 during the April 30 2021, mainly due to a noncash stock-based compensation of $158,680. Total assets of $1,791,497 increased from $627,696 the prior quarter, and working capital increased to $1,346,386 from $85,500 during the previous quarter ending January 31 2022, as the Company successfully raised $1,603,500 cash including the first $16,000 flow through cash for the upcoming 2022 exploration program.

During the second quarter of 2022, the Company incurred a loss of $97,372 compared to $99,310 for the same quarter during the prior year. The loss includes $74,056 (2021 - $43,257) in exploration expenses and $30,000 relating to the write off of the Ashuanipi property as the Company is no longer pursuing the project.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The financial statements have been prepared on a going-concern basis, which assumes the realization of assets and liquidation of liabilities in the normal course of business. Continuing operations, as intended, are dependent on management's ability to raise required funding through future equity issuances, its ability to acquire resource property or business interests and develop profitable operations or a combination thereof, which is not assured, given today's volatile and uncertain financial markets. The Company may revise programs depending on its working capital position.

As at January 31, 2023 the Company had a working capital of $2,417,805 (July 31, 2022 - $1,521,025) which primarily consisted of cash of $2,833,224 (July 31, 2022 - $1,560,339), GST and other receivables of $20,883 (July 31, 2022 - $6,088), prepaid expenses of $79,033 (July 31, 2022 - $300,849) and due from related parties $63,890 (July 31, 2022 - $72,624). Current liabilities of $579,091 (July 31, 2022 - $418,875), mainly consisting of accounts payable and accrued liabilities of $48,848 (July 31, 2022 - $57,933), due to related parties of $1,002 (July 31, 2022 - $28,741), loans of $Nil (July 31, 2022- $38,141) and flow-through premium liability of $520,808 (July 31, 2022 - $293,208). Each flow through unit consists of one common share of the Company and one-half of one common share purchase warrant of the Company. Each whole warrant entitles the holder thereof to acquire one common share of the Company at a price of $1.00 for a period of 24 months from issuance.

In connection with the private placement, the Company paid cash finders' fees of $157,726 and issued 131,696 non-transferable finder's warrants which will entitle the holder thereof to purchase one common share of the Company at a price of $0.60 to $0.65 per finder's warrant, for a period of 24 months from issuance.

Other than the above-mentioned current liabilities, the Company has an obligation to incur $2,168,663 in Quebec flow-through spending obligations and maintaining its mineral properties as discussed in Note 12 to the condensed interim consolidated financial statements. The Company has no short-term capital spending requirements and future plans and expectations are based on the assumption that the Company will realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business rather than through a process of forced liquidation. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to obtain adequate financing in the future or if available that such financing will be on acceptable terms. If adequate financing is not available when required, the Company may be required to delay, scale back or eliminate various programs and may be unable to continue in operation. The Company may seek such additional financing through debt or equity offerings. Any equity offering will result in dilution to the ownership interests of the Company's shareholders and may result in dilution to the value of such interests.

Historically, the Company's sole source of funding has been loans from related parties, private placements and debt financings. The Company's access to financing is always uncertain. There can be no assurance of continued access to significant equity funding. Management and the Board of Directors are actively involved in the review, planning and approval of significant expenditures and commitments. The Company's liabilities are predominantly due within 90 days of January 31, 2023 and lease liabilities of $8,433 (July 31, 2022 - $852) due within 12 months, and $20,580 (July 31, 2022 - $Nil) beyond 12 months.

The Company is dependent on the sale of treasury shares to finance its exploration activities, property acquisition payments and general and administrative costs. The Company will have to raise additional funds in the future to continue its operations. There can be no assurance, however, that the Company will be successful

On February 7, 2023 the Company announced that the Company is working with contractors and local First Nations to plan the Phase 2 drill program at HSP property. The Company is assessing drill site locations for four priority targets with associated access requirements and logistics. The fully funded Phase 2 diamond drilling will work to expand known mineralization at the 100%-owned HSP Nickel-Copper Sulphide Project, located 130 kilometres north of Havre-Saint-Pierre, Quebec.

On January 25, 2023 the Company announced HSP Nickel-Copper-Cobalt Project (“HSP”) on the Côte-Nord of Quebec, has successfully intersected nickel-copper mineralization on all targets as part of the first-ever drilling program.

Phase 1 program highlights

Accounting Policies

The accounting policies and methods employed by the Company determine how it reports its financial condition and results of operations, and may require management to make judgements or rely on assumptions about matters that are inherently uncertain. The Company’s results of operations are reported using policies and methods in accordance with IFRS. In preparing condensed interim consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRS, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses for the period. Management reviews its estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis using the most current information available.

Critical Accounting Estimates

The Company prepares its condensed interim consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRS, which require management to estimate various matters that are inherently uncertain as of the date of the condensed interim consolidated financial statements. Accounting estimates are deemed critical when a different estimate could have reasonably been used or where changes in the estimate are reasonably likely to occur from period to period, and would materially impact the Company’s condensed interim consolidated financial statements. The Company’s significant accounting policies are discussed in the annual consolidated financial statements. Critical estimates in these accounting policies are discussed below.

Fair value estimates of equity instruments

The fair value of each stock option granted is estimated at the grant date using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. The estimated life of the stock options and conversion at grant date is based on the expected life of the options and assumptions about the expected exercise pattern. Expected volatility of stock options is estimated based on the volatility of companies comparable in size and operations to the Company.

Recoverable value of asset carrying values

The carrying value of mineral properties and the likelihood of future economic recoverability is subject to significant management estimates and judgments. The application of the Company's accounting policy for and determination of recoverability of capitalized assets is based on assumptions about future events or circumstances. New information may change estimates and assumptions made. If information becomes available indicating that recovery of expenditures is unlikely, the amounts capitalized are impaired and recognized as a loss in the period that the new information becomes available. A change in estimate could result in the carrying amount of capitalized assets being materially different from their presented carrying costs.

Income taxes

In assessing the probability of realizing income tax assets, management makes estimates related to expectations of future taxable income, applicable tax opportunities, expected timing of reversals of existing temporary differences and the likelihood that tax positions taken will be sustained upon examination by applicable tax authorities. In making its assessments, management gives additional weight to positive and negative evidence that can be objectively verified.

Interest rates

The Company estimates a market interest rate in determining the fair value of the liability component of its convertible debentures. The determination of market interest rate is subjective and could materially affect the fair value estimate.

Designation and Valuation of Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, due to/from related parties, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, convertible debentures, lease liabilities and loan payable. Receivables are classified as loans and receivables, and accounts payable and accrued liabilities, due to/from related parties, lease liabilities and loans payable are classified as other financial liabilities, and recorded at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method. The Company does not hold any derivative financial instruments.

As at January 31, 2023, the fair values of accounts payable and accrued liabilities, due to/from related parties, loan payable and lease liabilities, approximate their carrying values due to the relatively short-term maturity of these instruments.

Risks

Foreign exchange risk

The Company currently has no significant operations denominated in foreign currencies. Management believes there is no significant foreign currency exchange rate risk.

Credit risk

The Company's cash is largely held in large Canadian financial institutions. The Company does not have any asset-backed commercial paper. Risks (continued)

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. Financial assets and liabilities with variable interest rates expose the Company to cash flow interest rate risk. The Company does not hold any financial liabilities with variable interest rates. The Company does maintain bank accounts which earn interest at variable rates but it does not believe it is currently subject to any significant interest rate risk.

Liquidity risk

The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on management's ability to raise required funding through future equity issuances and through short-term borrowing. The Company manages its liquidity risk by forecasting cash flows from operations and anticipating any investing and financing activities. Management and the Board of Directors are actively involved in the review, planning and approval of significant expenditures and commitments.

Price risk

The Company is exposed to price risk with respect to commodity prices. The Company's ability to raise capital to fund exploration and development activities is subject to risks associated with fluctuations in the market price of commodities.

Risks and Uncertainties

The Company's principal activity is mineral exploration and development. Companies in this industry are subject to many and varied kinds of risk, including but not limited to, environmental, metal prices, political and economic.

The mineral exploration business is risky and most exploration projects will not become mines. The Company may offer an opportunity to a mining company to acquire an interest in a property in return for funding all or part of the exploration and development of the property. For the funding of property acquisitions and exploration that the Company conducts, the Company depends on the issue of shares from the treasury to investors. These stock issues depend on numerous factors including a positive mineral exploration environment, positive stock market conditions, a company's track record and the experience of management.

The Company has no significant source of operating cash flow and no revenues from operations. The Company has not yet determined whether its mineral property contains mineral reserves that are economically recoverable. The Company has limited financial resources. Substantial expenditures are required to be made by the Company to establish reserves.

There is no guarantee that the Company will be able to contribute or obtain all necessary resources and funds for the exploration and exploitation of its permits, and may fail to meet its exploration commitments.

The property that the Company has an option to earn an interest in is in the exploration stages only, are without known bodies of commercial mineralization and have no ongoing mining operations. Mineral exploration involves a high degree of risk and few properties, that are explored, are ultimately developed into producing mines.

Exploration of the Company's mineral property may not result in any discoveries of commercial bodies of mineralization. If the Company's efforts do not result in any discovery of commercial mineralization, the Company will be forced to look for other exploration projects or cease operations.

The Company is subject to the laws and regulations relating to environmental matters in all jurisdictions in which it operates, including provisions relating to property reclamation, discharge of hazardous material and other matters.

COVID-19

The outbreak of the corona virus pandemic has impacted the Issuer's plans and activities. The Issuer may face disruption to operations, travel and trade restrictions and impact on economic activity in affected countries or regions can be expected and can be difficult to quantify. Such pandemics or diseases represent a serious threat to maintaining a skilled workforce industry and could be a major health-care challenge for the Issuer.

There can be no assurance that the Issuer's personnel will not be impacted by these pandemic diseases and ultimately that the Issuer would see its workforce productivity reduced or incur increased medical costs/insurance premiums as a result of these health risks. In addition, the COVID-19 pandemic has created a dramatic slowdown in the global economy. The duration of the COVID-19 outbreak and the resultant travel restrictions, social distancing, Government response actions, business closures and business disruptions, can all have an impact on the Issuer's operations and access to capital. There can be no assurance that the Issuer will not be impacted by adverse consequences that may be brought about by the COVID-19 pandemic on global financial markets may reduce resource prices, share prices and financial liquidity and thereby that may severely limit the financing capital available.

Trends

Trends in the industry can materially affect how well any junior exploration company is performing and by the capital markets which have made the raising of finance difficult. Under the current economic conditions, the Company is advancing its property as quickly as possible while still remaining prudent when considering large cost items such as drilling and geophysics.

In March 2020, the World Health Organization declared coronavirus (COVID-19) a global pandemic. This contagious disease outbreak, which has continued to spread, and any related adverse public health developments, has adversely affected workforces, economies, and financial markets globally, potentially leading to an economic downturn. While the extent of the impact is unknown, the Company anticipates this outbreak might increase the difficulty in capital raising which may negatively impact the Company's business operation and financing condition.
