Cresco Labs Announces Resignation of Joe Caltabiano as President

CHICAGO (March 3, 2020)—Cresco Labs Inc. (CSE:CL)(OTC:CRLBF) (“Cresco Labs” or “the Company”), one of the largest vertically integrated multistate cannabis operators in the United States, today announced that Joe Caltabiano has advised the Company of his decision to resign from the position of president effective immediately.

Mr. Caltabiano's management responsibilities will be taken up by CEO and Co-founder Charlie Bachtell as well as other members of the Company's recently strengthened leadership team. The organization wishes Joe well on his future endeavors and looks forward to continuing its path to building the most important company in cannabis.

About Cresco Labs:

Cresco Labs is one of the largest vertically-integrated multi-state cannabis operators in the United States. Cresco is built to become the most important company in the cannabis industry by combining the most strategic geographic footprint with one of the leading distribution platforms in North America. Employing a consumer-packaged goods (“CPG”) approach to cannabis, Cresco's house of brands is designed to meet the needs of all consumer segments and includes some of the most recognized and trusted national brands including Cresco, Remedi and Mindy's, a line of edibles created by James Beard Award-winning chef Mindy Segal. Sunnyside*, Cresco's national dispensary brand is a wellness-focused retailer designed to build trust, education and convenience for both existing and new cannabis consumers. Recognizing that the cannabis industry is poised to become one of the leading job creators in the country, Cresco has launched the industry's first national comprehensive Social Equity and Educational Development (SEED) initiative designed to ensure that all members of society have the skills, knowledge and opportunity to work in and own businesses in the cannabis industry.
