PLEASE RELEASE MARCH 10, 2021

FUTURE FARM AND HIGH PURITY NATURAL PRODUCTS PROVIDE UPDATE ON OPERATIONS AND STRATEGIC INVESTMENTS FOR ROBUST GROWTH

March 10, 2021 – Vancouver, British Columbia - Future Farm Technologies Inc. (the "Future Farm" or the "Company") (CSE: FFT) (OTC PINK: FFRMF) is pleased to provide an update on expansion for its subsidiary High Purity Natural Products (HPNP).

On March 5, 2021, HPNP enabled significant growth opportunities by executing a lease for their new 23,000SF location.

The new, larger facility will allow HPNP to provide expanded services and products to their partners, including 3PL fulfillment, warehousing, and unprecedented manufacturing and production volume.

"This expansion has been in the planning stages for quite some time," said HPNP President Mike Matton. "With these new capabilities come great opportunity for our partners and clients. It's a great feeling to know that these new opportunities enable our partners to scale their business and grow with us."

The move sets in motion a multi-phase approach that will pay dividends to HPNP's partners and FFT's shareholders.

Scalability:

- Manufacturing capacity and faster order fulfillment - the larger footprint will allow for greater manufacturing capacity and rapid order fulfillment.
- Increased product expansion and new SKU development
- R&D capacity - with new facility comes more opportunity to develop new cutting-edge products.
- 3PL fulfillment services. The increased space enables HPNP to offer 3PL services to any client interested in saving on shipping and warehousing fees.

According to FFT CEO Bill Gildea, "The team here at FFT identified very early on that HPNP is poised for growth and corporate maturity. This recognition is now coming to fruition. We are expecting significant revenue increases in the year to come."
