Update on the Issuer's Factoring Business:

Monthly Collections: March was a good month for invoice collections. On a scale of 1 – 10 (1 being low collections during the month and 10 being our best month ever), the month of March was a 8, which is very good. This was due to many of our smaller ticket invoices paying as usual while Pro-Com (Approx. $600K) and RB Dwyer (Unilever invoices for $1.1M) paid during the month as well. April looks like another good collection month due to sizable invoices from HarpData (Buffalo, NY school system) as well as typical collections from our client portfolio.

Funding: Overall, it is reasonable to expect some slowing in funding levels to our clients. We are reviewing every client with a strong emphasis on their industry and industry trends. Several of our clients serve industries that are performing well, such as sanitation wipes, medical gloves/products, sanitation services, hospitals, communication and business with Government agencies.

New Business: Presently we are experiencing a sharp uptick in requests for new service. Many of these requests are related to the ongoing struggles with Coronavirus. We are extremely careful with all new requests now, as there are many people attempting to take advantage of the situation. Overall, the tremendous changes occurring in the US economy bodes very well for alternative financing organizations who stay vigilant at every step.
