

FansUnite Submits Application To AGCO To Become Gaming Related Supplier in Ontario

-Canadian Company Aims To Provide Best in Class Gaming Technology in Canada-

Vancouver, British Columbia--(November 1, 2021) - FansUnite Entertainment Inc. (CSE: FANS) (OTCQX: FUNFF) ("FansUnite" or the "Company") is pleased to announce it has formally submitted its application to the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario (the "AGCO") to become a fully registered Gaming Related Supplier - Manufacturer.

As the holder of a Gaming Related Supplier - Manufacturer license, FansUnite would be able to provide Chameleon, its full service, proprietary sports, esports and casino white label gaming platform, to other AGCO approved operators.

This past August, the Canadian government approved Bill C-218, paving the way for provincial and territorial governments to manage single-event sports betting and licensing in their respective jurisdictions. Ontario, Canada's largest province, is the first to move forward with accepting applications from external iGaming operators.

"As a Canadian grown company, we've been looking forward to the day where we can operate in our home country," said Scott Burton, CEO of FansUnite. "Ontario's success will set the framework and serve as the blueprint for how the rest of the provinces could approach regulated gaming. That said, we are eager to be a part of that success."

FansUnite currently holds B2B and B2C licenses from numerous gaming commissions, including top tier jurisdictions such as the United Kingdom and Malta.
