Report on Business

1. Provide a general overview and discussion of the development of the Issuer's business and operations over the previous month. Where the Issuer was inactive disclose this fact.

The Company is a technology development company that commercializes academic and internally developed intellectual property for the purpose of developing new products for use in the public safety market.

The Company has two areas of product development focus:

- (i) Detection – which involves commercializing a new threat detection technology based on academic research developed by Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey ("Rutgers"), and ongoing research and development efforts by its in-house and outsourced development team; and
- (ii) Response – which involves commercializing a short acting pepper spray and antidote being developed from a technology licensed from the National Institutes of Health ("NIH").

The principal business of the Company is the development of detection products and services by commercializing WiFi technology developed by Rutgers that can be used to detect dangerous concealed weapons. In the Company's view, WiFi-based threat detection technology may be utilized by a wide range of industries to not only make their premises secure but also reduce their cost of security detection.

The secondary business of the Company is to develop and sell its short acting pepper spray product, as well as a separate first aid treatment product, to both the police and military market and emergency response markets globally. The Company has various distribution options, which include, for example: (i) direct sales through a future sales force hired by the Company, to the police, military and emergency response markets; or (ii) indirect sales through reseller channel partners who serve the same market. The Company intends to engage in either the direct manufacturing of its products to develop its own brand, or to license its formulations to existing global brands, as available. In addition, it may also white label the products in order to serve the maximum number of global brands possible, or a combination of all of the above.
