a) Black Duck Property, British Columbia, Canada

The Company owns a 100% undivided interest in two mineral titles covering approximately 1,621.9 hectares, which is centered 265 km northeast of Vancouver in south-central British Columbia, that include the Black Duck and the Black Duck South mineral titles (the "Black Duck Property"). The Black Duck Property was acquired by staking and is owned 100% by the Company.

b) Southwind Property, Arkansas, USA

Southwind Corporation ("Southwind") holds significant exploration and development properties in and around Independence County, Arkansas, USA. Southwind's principal asset is a land package in Arkansas hosting high-grade, surface phosphate deposit highly enriched with heavy rare earth elements ("Southwind Property").

On April 22, 2022 and amended on June 30, 2022, the Company entered into a definitive agreement to acquire all of the issued and outstanding shares of Southwind in exchange for 13,333,327 shares of the Company (the "Consideration Shares") and a cash payment of US$550,000 (paid).

The acquisition of Southwind has been accounted for by the Company as a purchase of assets. The acquisition did not qualify as a business combination under IFRS 3 Business Combinations, as the significant inputs, processes, and outputs, that together constitute a business, did not exist in these projects at the time of acquisition. Therefore, the asset acquisition transaction was accounted for in accordance with guidance provided in IFRS 2 Share-based payment. Accordingly, no goodwill was recorded with respect to the acquisition.

The increase in cash, total assets and share capital for the year ended June 30, 2022, compared to the prior year periods is primarily driven by Company's investing activities and financing activities. During the year ended June 30, 2022, the Company completed two private placements which has driven the increase in cash and share capital. During the year ended June 30, 2022, the Company also acquired two mineral properties which were paid through the issuance of shares which has increased total assets and share capital. The increase in the cash balance and acquisition of mineral properties as well as the investments in EarthRenew and Keras during fiscal 2022 has resulted in a significant increase in the total assets compared to the prior year comparable periods. Total liabilities increased as a result of issuance of new promissory notes. Change in net loss and comprehensive loss is mainly due to increased activity by the Company associated with the acquisition of mineral properties and investments in EarthRenew and Keras during fiscal 2022.

Discussion of results

The quarterly trend in total assets and working capital is primarily driven by movements in cash balances related to the Company's investing activities and spending on corporate costs. The acquisition of mineral properties has resulted in quarter-on-quarter increases in total assets in fiscal 2022 and the investment in Keras and EarthRenew securities has seen a significant increase in total assets during Q4 2022. The disposition of the investments in EarthRenew and Keras shares and the decrease in fair value of the investments have resulted in a decrease in total assets during the first two quarters of 2023 compared to Q4 2022.

The quarterly trend in net loss and comprehensive loss and basic and diluted loss per share is primarily driven by an increase in the Company's activities relating to an increase in exploration expenses associated with the mineral properties acquired during fiscal 2022, and increases consulting fees relating to investments in Keras and EarthRenew securities, increased equity financing and increased investor relations costs. The decrease in the net loss in Q1 and Q2 2023 compared to Q4 2022 is mainly due to the significant amount of operating costs such as administrative fees, consulting fees, exploration expenses, impairment of exploration and evaluation assets, and marketing costs that were incurred in Q4 2022.

The mineral exploration process can take many years and is subject to factors that are beyond the Company's control.

The Company's interim results are not necessarily indicative of its results for a full year. ### FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

Financial instruments measured at fair value are classified into one of three levels in the fair value hierarchy according to the relative reliability of the inputs used to estimate the fair values. The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are:

- Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 - Inputs that are not based on observable market data.

As at December 31, 2022, the Company's cash, accounts payables and accrued liabilities and promissory notes are measured at amortized cost. The fair values of these financial instruments approximate their carrying values due to their short-term nature.

As at December 31, 2022, the Company's investments are measured at fair value through profit and loss. The Company's investments in Keras and EarthRenew common shares and EarthRenew warrants are measured at fair value using Level 1 inputs. The fair value of investments in these shares and warrants is measured based on the quoted market price of these securities at each reporting date, and changes in fair value are recognized in profit or loss. The fair value of the investments in Keras warrants is determined using the Black-Scholes option pricing model and Level 3 inputs.

During the three and six months ended December 31, 2022 and 2021, there were no transfers between Level 1, Level 2, and Level 3 classified financial assets and liabilities.

The Company's financial instruments are exposed to certain financial risks. The risk exposures and the impact on the Company's financial instruments are summarized below.

a) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss to the Company if a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument fails to fulfill its contractual obligations. The Company's credit risk relates primarily to cash. The Company minimizes its credit risk related to cash by placing cash with major financial institutions. The Company considers the credit risk related to cash to be minimal.

b) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations when they become due. To mitigate this risk, the Company has a planning and budgeting process in place to determine the funds required to support its ongoing operations and capital expenditures. The Company endeavors to ensure that sufficient funds are raised from equity offerings or debt financing to meet its operating requirements, after taking into account existing cash and expected exercise of stock options and warrants. The Company's cash is held in business accounts which are available on demand for the Company's programs. The Company's liquidity risk relates primarily to accounts payable and accrued liabilities and promissory notes.

c) Market risk

Market risk is the risk of loss that may arise from changes in market factors such as interest rates market prices of its investments, and foreign exchange rates. The Company is not exposed to significant interest rate risk on the basis that it does not hold any financial liabilities subject to variable interest rates. The Company is exposed to price risk because of the fluctuating values of its publicly traded investments in Keras and EarthRenew. The Company has no control over these fluctuations and does not hedge its investments. The sensitivity of the Company's net loss to changes in the share prices of the investments is as follows: a 10% change in Keras share price would change the Company's net loss by approximately $52,000, and a 10% change in EarthRenew's share price would change the Company's net loss by approximately $32,000.

Foreign exchange risk

Foreign exchange risk arises on publicly traded investments in Keras that are denominated in British pound and US dollar. The Company is exposed to foreign exchange risk from changes in the Canadian dollar to these currencies. The sensitivity of the Company's net loss to changes in the exchange rate between the Canadian dollar to the British pounds and the US dollars is as follows: a 10% change in the Canadian dollar exchange rate relative to the British pound would change the Company's net loss by approximately $36,000, and a 10% change in the Canadian dollar exchange rate relative to the US dollar would change the Company's net loss by approximately $16,000.

All significant accounting policies and critical accounting estimates are fully disclosed in the Note 3 of the financial statements and the annual financial statements for the years ended June 30, 2022 and 2021, except for the following:

Asset held for sale

The Company classifies assets, or disposal groups, as held for sale when it expects to recover their carrying amounts through a sale of the assets. To meet the criteria to be classified as held for sale, the sale must be highly probable, and the assets or disposal groups must be available for immediate sale in their present condition. The Company must be committed to a plan to sell the assets, and the sale should be expected to qualify for recognition as a completed sale within one year from the date of classification.

The Company measures assets, or disposal groups, at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell. Impairment losses on initial classification as held for sale and subsequent gains and losses on remeasurement are recognized in profit or loss; however, gains are not recognized in excess of any cumulative impairment loss. Upon classifying assets as held for sale, the Company presents the assets and the associated liabilities as a single amount on the consolidated statements of financial position. Comparative period balances are not restated. Assets held for sale are not depreciated, depleted, or amortized.

RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

All risks and uncertainties are fully disclosed in the Management's Discussion and Analysis for the years ended June 30, 2022 and 2021.
