16. Provide details of any changes in directors, officers or committee members.

On May 28, 2018, the Company announced the appointment of Mr. Galen Cheng as an independent Board member and the Chairman of the Audit Committee. Mr. Danny Deng is no longer a member of the Audit Committee but remains as the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

17. Discuss any trends which are likely to impact the Issuer including trends in the Issuer's market(s) or political/regulatory trends.

The Company has historically relied upon equity financings to satisfy its capital requirements and will initially continue to depend heavily upon equity capital to finance its activities. Even though, on February 16, 2018, the Company has signed a licensing agreement of its intellectual properties in exchange of an on-going licensing fees, the Company is convinced that it will need additional capital in the future to finance daily operation and business acquisition and such capital will have to be derived from the exercise of outstanding stock options, warrants and/or the completion of other equity financings and additional sales contracts.

The Company has limited financial resources and has no assurance that additional funding will be available to it for future development of its projects, although the Company has been successful in the past in financing its activities through the sale of equity securities and loans from insiders. The ability of the Company to arrange additional financing in the future will depend, in part, on the prevailing capital market conditions and success in its projects.

There can be no assurance that continual fluctuations in the Company's share prices will not occur or that these fluctuations will not affect the ability of the Company to raise equity funding, and if at all, without causing a significant dilution to its existing shareholders. Any quoted market for the common shares may be subject to market trends generally, notwithstanding any potential success of the Company in creating revenue, cash flows or earnings.
