MONTHLY PROGRESS REPORT

Name of CNSX Issuer: James Bay Resources Limited (“the Company”)

Trading Symbol: JBR

Number of Outstanding Listed Securities: 51,014,068 common shares

Date: December 2, 2020

This Monthly Progress Report must be posted before the opening of trading on the fifth trading day of each month. This report is not intended to replace the Issuer’s obligation to separately report material information forthwith upon the information becoming known to management or to post the forms required by the CNSX Policies. If material information became known and was reported during the preceding month to which this report relates, this report should refer to the material information, the news release date and the posting date on the CNSX.ca website.

This report is intended to keep investors and the market informed of the Issuer’s ongoing business and management activities that occurred during the preceding month. Do not discuss goals or future plans unless they have crystallized to the point that they are "material information" as defined in the CNSX Policies. The discussion in this report must be factual, balanced and non-promotional.

General Instructions

- (a) Prepare this Monthly Progress Report using the format set out below. The sequence of questions must not be altered nor should questions be omitted or left unanswered. The answers to the items must be in narrative form. State when the answer to any item is negative or not applicable to the Issuer. The title to each item must precede the answer.
- (b) The term “Issuer” includes the Issuer and any of its subsidiaries.
- (c) Terms used and not defined in this form are defined or interpreted in Policy 1 – Interpretation and General Provisions.

Report on Business

1. Provide a general overview and discussion of the development of the Issuer's business and operations over the previous month. Where the Issuer was inactive disclose this fact.

The Company remains focused on its efforts to complete a transaction in relation to its interest in Crestar Integrated Natural Resources Limited ("Crestar") and OML 25 in Nigeria. In addition, the Company continues to hold its investment in Cerrado Gold Inc, which operates an exploration project and an operating mine in South America.

There were no significant developments over the previous month. The global outbreak of COVID-19 (coronavirus), had a significant impact on businesses through restrictions put in place by the Canadian government regarding travel, business operations and isolations/quarantine orders. This has restricted the Company's business development of its investments. While the extent of the impact is unknown, the President and CEO of the Company has continued to extend loans to finance the working capital of the Company.

2. Provide a general overview and discussion of the activities of management.

The Company continued to negotiate with various parties on the potential sale of its interest in OML 25 but has not yet progressed to a point of reaching a binding agreement. The Company through its subsidiary (Crestar) continues to be involved in litigation in Nigeria in relation to its interests in OML 25, and there have been no material developments in that ongoing litigation recently.

3. Describe and provide details of any new products or services developed or offered. For resource companies, provide details of new drilling, exploration or production programs and acquisitions of any new properties and attach any mineral or oil and gas or other reports required under Ontario securities law.

None to report for the period

4. Describe and provide details of any products or services that were discontinued. For resource companies, provide details of any drilling, exploration or production programs that have been amended or abandoned.

None to report for the period

10. Report on any employee hirings, terminations or lay-offs with details of anticipated length of lay-offs.

None to report for the period

11. Report on any labour disputes and resolutions of those disputes if applicable.

None to report for the period

12. Describe and provide details of legal proceedings to which the Issuer became a party, including the name of the court or agency, the date instituted, the principal parties to the proceedings, the nature of the claim, the amount claimed, if any, if the proceedings are being contested, and the present status of the proceedings.

In October 2019, the Company has commenced legal proceedings in the State of California to recover overdue amounts owed pursuant to a secured loan agreement with CBH. The legal proceeding is also commenced against companies related to the Borrower (collectively, the "Borrowers"), along with David Bunevacz, a consultant of the Borrower, Mary Hayca Bunevacz, an executive and major shareholder of the Borrower, and 2 individuals who personally guaranteed the obligations of the Borrowers. The legal action involves filing a Complaint with the Superior Court of the State of California, County of Los Angeles, for breach of contract, unjust enrichment, fraud, recovery of possession of personal property, and appointment of a receiver.

Under the terms of the Secured Loan Agreement, James Bay advanced in aggregate US$3.5 million to the Borrower (the "Secured Loan"), with the Secured Loan plus all accrued and unpaid interest repayable on the six-month anniversary of advancing the funds (the "Maturity Date"). The Secured Loan is fully secured by all of the assets, undertaking and business of the Borrowers, and personally guaranteed by Mary Hayca Bunevacz along with 2 other individuals associated with the Borrowers. Up to and since the Maturity Date, James Bay had been working with the Borrower and its management in attempts to sell various inventories and receive payment of its Secured Loan, but those efforts have proven fruitless. With interest and expenses, the total amount currently outstanding under the Secured Loan Agreement is approximately US$4.3 million, all of which is being claimed by James Bay in the legal proceedings.

The legal proceedings initiated by the Company in the State of California to recover all amounts owed pursuant to the secured loan agreement with the Borrowers have been terminated as of November 18, 2020 by the Company's counsel in California, without prejudice.

13. Provide details of any indebtedness incurred or repaid by the Issuer together with the terms of such indebtedness.

None to report for the period

14. Provide details of any securities issued and options or warrants granted.
