The Issuer sued by AIS over work in Argentina

The Issuer is facing a lawsuit in the Supreme Court of British Columbia from a joint venture partner. The partner, AIS Resources Ltd., claims that the Issuer has fallen behind on payments for work on a property in Argentina. AIS is seeking the court-ordered payment of the overdue amount.

The allegations are contained in a brief notice of claim that AIS filed at the Vancouver courthouse on November 1, 2019. The suit stems from an agreement for the Salinitas lithium brine project in Argentina. On July 23, 2018, the Issuer agreed to acquire an interest in the property, with the payment for that interest to include a first-year work program of $600,000 (U.S.), the suit states.

According to AIS, the program began in 2018, as expected, with AIS carrying out the work on the Issuer's behalf. The Issuer agreed that it would pay for the exploration promptly, the suit states. It made an initial $42,000 (U.S.) deposit for that work.

The Issuer denies leaving unpaid bill for Salinitas work

The Issuer is responding to the lawsuit from joint venture partner AIS Resources Ltd. The Issuer denies that it left an outstanding bill for property work in Argentina. The Issuer says that it was under no obligation to make any of the expenditures at issue. The Issuer is asking that the suit be dismissed.

The Issuer has provided a litigation update covering litigations currently involving the Issuer. All claims against the Issuer have been accounted for in the financial statements of the Issuer, as they are vendor payable or consultants' wages and expenses claims. The Issuer has no reason to believe any legal outcome is likely to significantly exceed amounts already accounted for, and amounts may be significantly less as a number of the claims are contested. As a result of these and other liabilities, The Issuer has issued a letter of demand to Zinc8 Energy Solutions Inc. for amounts owed of $2,985,000 dated November 5, 2019, with a request for payment or payment plan within seven days.
