On April 5, 2018 the Company announced a re-organization of its affairs.

The Company will conduct a Plan of Arrangement that will among other matters, subject to regulatory approval, result in Certive transitioning to an Investment Company. The Company will comply with Canadian Securities Exchange (the "Exchange") Policy and Regulations while spinning out several corporations that will by virtue of the Plan of Arrangement become reporting issuers and seek to list on the Exchange.

One of the spin out companies will acquire the Company's current wholly-owned subsidiary Certive Health Inc., enabling Certive Health Inc. to attract additional capital within the United States.

The Board has developed its investment policies and intends to invest in US Healthcare businesses that will not compete with Certive Health Inc. or its business undertakings.

The primary objectives in conducting the Plan of Arrangement are summarized as follows:

a) To divest via spinout, Certive Health Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary which has since incorporation received several million dollars in funding from Certive Solutions Inc.

b) To settle all convertible debt raised to finance Certive Health Inc.

c) To increase shareholder value by providing to the Certive Solutions shareholders shares in four proposed spinoffs with each spinoff completing its own financing including that of Certive Health Inc.

d) To re-qualify Certive Solutions Inc. as an investment issuer with $2 million in funding.

As of the date of this Form 7 the Company is continuing efforts to complete the Plan of arrangement.
