Lightning Ventures Conducts Training Seminar for Chemical Injections System

VANCOUVER, CANADA, June 19, 2018 – Lightning Ventures Inc. (CSE: LVI) (the “Company” or “Lightning”) is pleased to announce that on June 13th, 2018, the Company conducted a training and education seminar for the Lightning Chemical Injections System. The program included classroom sessions and hands-on demonstrations using a fully operational injection platform and simulated well head. Technicians and administrative personal from the following companies were in attendance: PEMEX, Jaguar Exploracion y Produccion, GS Oil and Gas, IHSA (Iberoamericana de Hidrocarburos), PJP4, CMM (Consortio Manufacturero de Mexico) and Aldake.

Don Rainwater, CEO, commented: “The enthusiasm demonstrated by the attendees further evidences the requirement for a liquid injection system and the viability of our product. We believe there is no similar technology in the oil and gas space and this gives us first mover advantage to capitalize on new revenue opportunities.”
