

LEVIATHAN CANNABIS GROUP PROVIDES CORPORATE UPDATE

TORONTO, ONTARIO --- (Newsfile Corp. – May 9, 2019) - Leviathan Cannabis Group Inc. (CSE: EPIC) (the "Company" or "Leviathan") is pleased to provide the following corporate update.

Leviathan's Greenhouse Cultivation Facility – Pelham Ontario

Town Council of Pelham addressed Leviathan's application for an exemption to its Interim Cannabis By-law (4046) on April 15, 2019. This by-law places a one-year moratorium on new cannabis builds and any expansions of cannabis related facilities. While the Council had several options on this matter, it chose to defer the decision to its legal counsel.

Importantly, the Town's planning department issued a report recommending that Council grant Leviathan's exemption application (with modest conditions). Company management is pressing the Town to determine its exemption application and anticipates a decision in the next seven to ten days.

Private Stock Sale

Renny Bidinot and Joseph Bidinot, as insiders of Leviathan, have sold all their shares in Leviathan. Specifically, on April 29, 2019, Renny Bidinot and Joseph Bidinot entered into Share Purchase Agreements with third party, arms-length purchasers to sell 20,000,000 million issued and outstanding fully paid and non-assessable common shares in the capital of Leviathan.

Subject to the terms and conditions set out in an agreement between Renny Bidinot, Joseph Bidinot, Leviathan, Woodstock BioMed Inc. ("Woodstock") and Computershare Trust Company of Canada dated June 14, 2018 (the "Escrow Agreement"), the Bidinots agreed to assign and transfer rights pursuant to the Escrow Agreement to 10,000,000 escrowed shares to third party, arms-length purchasers. This transaction closed on May 3, 2019.

No officers or other insiders of Leviathan were involved in the private transactions.

Appointment of New Woodstock Directors

Renny Bidinot has resigned as director, Chairman, President, Treasurer and Secretary of Woodstock a wholly owned subsidiary of Leviathan and Martin J. Doane, Luvlina Sanghera and Paul Gri have been elected as directors of Woodstock. Additionally, Martin J. Doane has been appointed as President of Woodstock, Luvlina Sanghera has been appointed as Chief Operating Officer of Woodstock and Paul Gri has been appointed as Vice-President of Woodstock.

Mr. Doane brings 28 years' experience as a lawyer specializing in the resolution of complex disputes together with two decades of activity in the capital markets, executive & corporate governance ranks. He has accumulated substantial cannabis sector expertise the last four years through leading roles in the formation, financing and management of cannabis companies in Canada and the United States.

Ms. Sanghera is a former Founder/CEO of a branding agency in which she combined her unique creativity, strategic thinking and operational skills. She served at the executive level with an international manufacturer that distributed its product worldwide and has worked extensively in the North American cannabis market as a highly valued consultant.

Mr. Gri's career spans 35 years in various industries including food, durable goods manufacturing, mining, cannabis and tool & die. He has extensive experience in operations management, facility construction and implementation of efficiency improvements both nationally and internationally.

About Leviathan Cannabis

Leviathan plans on executing a series of strategic acquisitions that extend across all vertical markets in Canada and internationally, to support the Company's proprietary brand strategy. This global reach positions the Company to be a leading multi-jurisdictional medical and recreational cannabis enterprise – one that brings together the best cannabis products, brands and expertise from Canada and around the world. The Leviathan portfolio currently comprises Jekyll+Hyde Brand Builders Inc., a marketing services agency specializing in the cannabis sector, and Woodstock Biomed Inc., a late-stage applicant under the ACMPR, which is planning to retrofit a substantial greenhouse production facility in Pelham, Ontario, subject to obtaining an exemption from the interim control by-law imposed by the Town of Pelham.
