- The Kalifornia reached the number 1 selling SKU in New Brunswick during the same period since launching.

During the first year of production “The Lotus cultivation team has demonstrated the value of combining years of growing experience with a sophisticated production facility. The Lotus strains have consistently yielded high THC and terpene levels. This has been the bedrock of our success this year where we’ve had significant progress in regard to sales and marketing, increasing our brand’s awareness and establishing reliable wholesale relationships across Canada. We look forward to expanding our existing production and continuing our strong sales over the next fiscal year” said Lotus CEO Dale McClanaghan.
