MAKENA RESOURCES INC., BIOCAN TECHNOLOGIES INC. AND EPIMERON INC. PROVIDE AN UPDATE IN RESPECT OF BUSINESS COMBINATION TO FORM WILLOW BIOSCIENCES INC.

Vancouver, British Columbia and Calgary, Alberta – April 5, 2019 – Makena Resources Inc. (“Makena”) (CSE: MKNA), BioCan Technologies Inc. (“BioCan”) and Epimeron Inc. (“Epimeron”) announce that BioCan and Epimeron obtained an amendment to the interim order (the “Interim Order”) from the Court of Queen’s Bench of Alberta authorizing BioCan to set April 12, 2019 for the date of the meeting of shareholders of BioCan (the “BioCan Meeting”) under which BioCan will seek approval of, among other things, the business combination of Makena, BioCan and Epimeron pursuant to a plan of arrangement under the Business Corporations Act (Alberta) (the “Transaction”). The Interim Order was also amended to change the notice of intention to appear deadline to April 5, 2019. The shareholders of Epimeron have executed a written resolution approving the Transaction.

The Transaction is expected to be completed on or about April 12, 2019, subject to certain conditions, including approval of the Canadian Securities Exchange (the “CSE”), final approval of the Court of Queen’s Bench of Alberta, approval of the requisite majority of the shareholders of BioCan, the disposition of all of Makena’s mining assets and certain other customary conditions. Following completion of the Transaction, the resulting issuer, which will be named Willow Biosciences Inc. (“Willow”), intends to focus its business on cannabinoid biosynthetic production.

Details of the Transaction are disclosed in a joint information circular of BioCan and Makena which has been filed under Makena’s profile on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

Additional Information

Additional information regarding the Transaction, BioCan, Epimeron and Willow will be made publicly available by Makena in due course, including pursuant to the listing statement to be filed on SEDAR in connection with the Transaction at www.sedar.com. Willow’s work program and other information regarding BioCan, Epimeron and Willow has been submitted to the CSE for their review.

Forward-Looking Statements

This news release contains forward-looking statements and forward-looking information within the meaning of applicable securities laws. The use of any of the words "expect", "anticipate", "continue", "estimate", "objective", "ongoing", "may", "will", "project", "should", "believe", "plans", "intends" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking information or statements. More particularly, and without limitation, this news release contains forward looking statements and information concerning the application to the CSE in respect of the Transaction, the completion and timing of the Transaction, the change of name of Makena, Willow's corporate strategy and the anticipated benefits of the Transaction, and statements relating to Willow's business, strategies, expectations, planned operations or future actions.

The forward-looking statements and information are based on certain key expectations and assumptions made by Makena, including expectations and assumptions concerning: Makena, BioCan, Epimeron and Willow; the Transaction, including CSE, Court and shareholder approvals and the satisfaction of other closing conditions in accordance with the terms of the arrangement agreement in respect of the Transaction; the future operations of, and transactions completed by, Willow; the availability of sufficient capital; the availability of and access to qualified personnel; Willow's ability to protect its intellectual property; the expected growth in the cannabis market, including demand for cultured cannabinoids; expectations regarding the regulatory framework for cultured cannabinoids; the medical benefits, viability, safety, efficacy, dosing and social acceptance of cannabis; the securities markets and the general economy; the legalization of the use of cannabis for medical and/or adult use in jurisdictions outside of Canada; and applicable laws not changing in a manner that is unfavorable to Willow. In addition, Makena has assumed that it will be able to dispose of its mining assets in a timely manner on terms that are favourable to Makena.

Although Makena believes that the expectations and assumptions on which such forward-looking statements and information are based are reasonable, undue reliance should not be placed on the forward looking statements and information because Makena can give no assurance that they will prove to be correct. By its nature, such forward-looking information is subject to various risks and uncertainties, which could cause the actual results and expectations to differ materially from the anticipated results or expectations expressed. Without limitation, these risks and uncertainties include: the parties being unable to obtain the required CSE, Court and shareholder approvals; the failure to complete the Transaction on satisfactory terms, risks associated with the cannabis industry in general, infringement on intellectual property, failure to benefit from partnerships or successfully integrate acquisitions, actions and initiatives of federal and provincial governments and changes to government policies and the execution and impact of these actions, initiatives and policies, import/export and research restrictions for cannabinoid-based operations, the size of the medical-use and adult-use cannabis market, competition from other industry participants, adverse U.S., Canadian and global economic conditions, failure to comply with certain regulations and departure of key management personnel or inability to attract and retain talent. There is also the risk that Makena will not be able to dispose of its mining assets in a timely manner, and that such disposition if it occurs will not be on terms favourable to Makena. Makena undertakes no obligation to update publicly or revise any forward-looking information, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by law.
