

ScreenPro Completes Over 24,000 Covid-19 Tests And Added 3 New Productions In April

Toronto, Ontario- May 19, 2021- ScreenPro Security Inc. (CSE: SCRN) ("ScreenPro" or the "Company") is pleased to provide an update on film and television industry testing.

For the month of April 2021, the Company received orders for an additional 3 Film & TV productions, 1 in Toronto and 2 in Vancouver. The Company provided services to 22 production companies, 7 in Toronto and 15 in Vancouver, administering approximately 24,000 tests.

The company continues to have success with the 1copy™ COVID-19 qPCR Multi Kit, ("1drop") supplied by Datametrex AI Limited (TSXV: DM). The manufacturer, 1drop Inc., has confirmed that the 1drop can identify the new variants of the coronavirus that causes COVID-19, now circulating worldwide which is vital to stem the third wave and the many variants that are spreading locally in Canada.

Entire film and TV production in Canada represent $8.92 billion in production volume, and full-time equivalent jobs represent 179,000 workers. In March 2020, the industry stopped worldwide and in Vancouver which represents 37% of Canadian productions, and the surrounding areas had 46 productions filming which does not include the TV commercial market. Each of the shows would have a minimum of a 100-person film crew. ¹

With feature-length movies, episodic series productions and pilot season quickly ramping up in Toronto and Vancouver, and with multiple mutant variants, we feel that this will continue expanding the COVID-19 screening business for the film and TV industries. We are proud to be able to help the industry and the citizens to create safer working environment with our dedicated team and their capability to deliver in timely fashion to minimize the risk" said Andrew Ryu, CEO of ScreenPro Security.
