

CRESCO LABS' MINDY'S EDIBLES RANKS FIRST FOR CANNABIS EDIBLE SALES IN NEVADA

Cresco Labs Mindy's Kitchen gummies have been ranked the best-selling product in Nevada

CHICAGO – February 5, 2019 – Cresco Labs (CSE:CL) (“Cresco” or “the Company”), one of the largest vertically integrated multistate cannabis operators in the United States, is excited to announce that its Mindy's Kitchen brand has been ranked the top selling edible in Nevada according to Headset, the first real-time data analytics and business intelligence platform for the cannabis industry. In partnership with Cresco Labs, James Beard Award-winning chef Mindy Segal created the industry's first culinary-backed, cannabis-infused edibles, with a six-state distribution planned for 2019. In Nevada, Mindy's Pink Lemonade Gummies, Strawberry Sparkling Wine Hard Sweets and Wild Cherry Gummies, ranked first, ninth and tenth, respectively, by Headset, for edible sales in the state.

“We launched Mindy's Edibles in Nevada in mid-August and, in less than six months, our products are now carried in 62 out of 67 dispensaries in the state,” said Cresco Labs CEO and co-founder Charles Bachtell. “Our proven ability to create brands that resonate with each consumer segment and establish a dominant retail market position is a key differentiator for Cresco Labs.”

Mindy's Artisanal Edibles include a line of decadent chocolate brittle bars and home-spun baked goods infused with clear distillate allowing the best ingredients to shine through. The Mindy's Kitchen brand – a collaboration between Mindy and her talented group of chefs – offers fun, fruity confections for everyday enjoyability and effectiveness. The confections are infused with RSO and winterized sativa, indica and hybrid oil that complement the approachable flavors. Mindy's Edibles are produced and distributed in partnership with Silver State Wellness in Nevada.

About Cresco Labs:
